2015 USA Women's U16 Notes

How They Got Here

The USA Basketball Women's U16 National Team was chosen by the USA Basketball Women's Developmental National Team Committee on May 26 after four days of trials that began with 149 players on May 21 at the United States Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

In addition to 34 athletes who were invited to trials by the committee, 115 players took part as applicant athletes.

Jayda Adams and Lauryn Miller were applicant athletes who made the roster in 2015.

The USA Basketball Women's Developmental National Team Committee is chaired in a non-voting position by USA Basketball women's national team director Carol Callan, and includes AAU representatives Bill Larson and Sherri Pegues, National Federation of High Schools representatives Jody Patrick and Jill Rankin Schneider and athlete representative Yolanda Griffith, a 2000 and 2004 Olympic gold medalist who played on five USA Basketball teams.

All In The Family

Jayda Adams is the younger sibling of Jordan Adams, a 2009 U16 and 2010 U17 gold medalist.

Desiree Caldwell is the younger sibling of Recee Caldwell, a 2011 U16 and 2014 U18 gold medalist.

By Class

Six players are from the high school class of 2017, and six players will graduate high school in 2018.

Teaming Up

Andra Espinoza-Hunter and Honesty Scott-Grayson will be teammates at Blair Academy in New Jersey in 2015-16.

Dori Oldaker

USA Women's U16 Head Coach • Mt. Lebanon High School, Pennsylvania

The head coach of the 2015 USA Women's U16 National Team, Dori Oldaker previously helped lead the USA to a gold medal and a 13-0 record as head coach of the 2014 U.S. Youth Olympic Games Women's 3x3 Basketball Team, and four times she has served as a USA Basketball court coach, including the 2014 USA U17 World Championship Team Trials, the 2012 USA U17 and U18 National Team Trials and the 2011 USA U16 National Team Trials.

"I am extremely humbled and flattered to be named the head coach of the USA Women's U16 National Team," Oldaker said. "I am very excited and take great pride in this opportunity to work with such amazing student-athletes. This truly is a dream come true. These players are the best of the best, and I plan on giving them my best effort as well.

"I am excited to work with coach Lewis and coach Quigley. They are not only quality coaches, but more importantly, they are quality people. I look forward to learning from them and making our staff as strong as it can be."

In 16 seasons (1998 to present) as a high school head coach, Oldaker owns a career record of 373-85 (through 2014-15), and she has collected four Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association (PIAA) 4A state titles (2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011), two 3A state championships (1999, 2000) and five Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League titles.

As the girls basketball coach at Mt. Lebanon for the past 12 seasons (2003-04 to present), she owns a 268-67 record (through 2014-15), and in 2014-15, she led her team to a 13-10 mark and a second-place finish in PIAA's Section 4.

Before taking over at Mt. Lebanon, Oldaker was the varsity girls coach at her alma mater, Blackhawk High School (Pa.), for four seasons (1998-99 through 2001-02), where she compiled a 105-18 record (.854 winning percentage) and captured consecutive WPIAL and 3A state titles in 1999 and 2000.

Five times Oldaker has been named the Associated Press Pennsylvania Big School Coach of the Year (1999, 2000, 2008, 2009 and 2010). In 2005, she was honored as the Johnny Unitas Sportsmanship Coach of the Year and as the Class 4A WPIAL Coach of the Year, and in 2001 she was tabbed as the Dapper Dan Sportswoman of the Year.

Oldaker was inducted into the Pennsylvania Athletic Hall of Fame in 2015, the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame in 2009 and the Western Pennsylvania Girls' Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

As a basketball player at Blackhawk High School, she earned Beaver County Co-Athlete of the Year as a senior in 1986.

She graduated from Penn State University in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in elementary education.

Dianne Lewis

USA Women's U16 Assistant Coach • Thomas Edison High School, Virginia

As an assistant coach for the 2015 USA Basketball U16 Women's National Team, Dianne Lewis will serve in her second USA Basketball role this summer. She also was a court coach for the 2014 USA Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials.

"I want to thank USA Basketball for another opportunity to work with some of our most esteemed athletes and coaches," Lewis said. "What an amazing honor. I am excited and grateful to take this journey with two wonderful coaches, coach Oldaker and coach Quigley."

In 14 seasons (2001-02 to present) as the girls basketball coach at Edison, she has compiled a 292-65 record (through 2014-15).

In 2014-15, she led her team to a 27-2 mark, a Capitol Conference Title, a 5A Northern Region title and the 2015 Virginia 5A state semifinals.

Overall, she has guided the Eagles to eight conference titles, five Northern Region championships for state semifinals and two state championship appearances.

In 2013-14, she guided her team to a 25-4 record, to conference and regional championships and the state tournament final four. With a win against Wakefield High School on Jan. 14, 2014, she recorded her 250th win while at Edison.

In 2012-13, she led Edison to a 24-5 record, a Northern Region championship and the 3A state quarterfinals.

She has been awarded the National District Coach of the Year six times; Northern Region Coach of the Year in 2010, 2013, 2014 and 2015; the Capitol Conference Coach of the Year in 2014; Fairfax County Women in Sports Coach of the Year in 2010; and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Coach of the Year in 2013.

In June 2013, Lewis was named the USA Today/WUSA 9 Coach of the Year.

Many of her former players have gone on to play at the college level.

Lewis also is involved in the basketball community serving as a coach with the Tiger Basketball AAU organization.

Her daughter, Shawnee Lewis, a 2008 Edison graduate, played for her mother and at Virginia Wesleyan College, and she now coaches alongside her mother.

Samantha Quigley

USA Women's U16 Assistant Coach • University of St. Francis, Illinois (NAIA)

Having previously served as a court coach at a USA Basketball regional skills development camp in October of 2014 in Illinois, Samantha Quigley will serve as an assistant coach for the 2015 USA Women's U16 National Team.

"It certainly means a lot to be named as an assistant coach for a USA Women's National Team," Quigley said. "Representing our country through a great game is something special, and I am certainly looking forward to it. USA Basketball has been something I have watched all of my life, and to be a part of it now is truly a dream come true."

"The successes of these two women speak volumes about their knowledge of the game. I cannot wait to learn and coach beside them this spring and summer, and teach some of the best players in the nation. I'm looking forward to representing the United States of America with phenomenal coaches."

She recently completed her third year (2012-13 to present) as the head coach at the University of St. Francis (NAIA).

She was elevated to the position after serving as an assistant coach at St. Francis in 2011-12.

In her debut as a head coach in 2012-13, Quigley led St. Francis to a 14-17 overall record and the No. 6 seed for the Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference Tournament after finishing 12-10 in league action.

Prior to moving on to the coaching ranks, Quigley enjoyed an impressive playing career at DePaul University from 2006-07 through 2010-11, including a medical hardship in 2007-08 after a torn ACL in the summer of 2007.

In her four years on the court for DePaul, she helped the Blue Demons to a 92-42 record, and for her career, she started in 116 of 134 games played and averaged 9.5 points, 3.6 assists and 2.5 rebounds in 30.0 minutes per game. Her 484 career assists still ranks third at DePaul.

As a senior in 2010-11, she was a State Farm WBCA All-America honorable mention and a finalist for the Nancy Lieberman and Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. She garnered All-Big East second team accolades in 2010 and 2011.

The 2011 Big East Sportsmanship Award winner, Quigley also was Capital One Academic All-District Five and named to the I-AAA Scholar Athlete Team in 2011, and she was a three-time member of the Big East All-Academic Team.

On Dec. 7, 2010 at Pittsburgh, Quigley became the 24th player in DePaul women's basketball history to reach the 1,000-career point plateau. She went on to finish with 1,273 points, which currently ranks 20th all-time for the DePaul program.

A multi-sport star as a high school athlete at Joliet Catholic Academy, Quigley was named Chicago Sun-Times Female Athlete of the Year in 2006 as a standout in basketball, volleyball and softball. She was a four-year starter in each of those sports from 2002-06.

Quigley finished her prep basketball career with 1,910 points and was a Parade All-American and McDonald's All-America nominee. Twice she was named Illinois Basketball Coaches Association All-State first team and Associated Press 2A All-State third team. She also claimed all-state honors in volleyball and all-area recognition in softball. As a sophomore, along with her older sister Allie as a senior, she led Joliet Catholic to the Class 2A state volleyball championship. She also batted better than .400 as the leadoff hitter for the softball team.

Her late father, Pat, played basketball and tennis for St. Francis, and the playing court in the Sullivan Center is named in his honor. Her mother, Chris (Prieboy), is USF's all-time leading scorer in basketball and was a star softball player for the Saints. Her retired jersey hangs in the Sullivan Center. Her stepfather, Don Strle, played basketball for legendary St. Francis head coach Pat Sullivan.

Quigley's older sister, Allie, also was an All-Big East basketball player at DePaul and has played professionally in both Europe and in the WNBA, most recently for the Chicago Sky. Allie Quigley also attended trials for the 2006 USA U10 National Team and the 2007 U21 World Championship Team. Their younger brother, Jake, was the lone Quigley sibling to attend USF, and he played tennis for the Saints prior to his 2011 graduation.

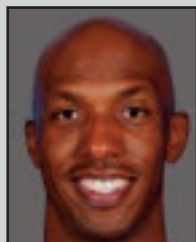

Quigley graduated from DePaul in 2010.

- Women's Basketball Coaches Association.

USA Basketball was organized in 1974 and known as the Amateur Basketball Association of the United States of America (ABAUSA). The name change to USA Basketball occurred Oct. 12, 1989, shortly after FIBA modified its rules to allow professional basketball players to participate in international competitions. USA Basketball then admitted the NBA as an active member and made the change.

Above Right: David Robinson was the first American men's basketball player to play in three Olympics. The center earned gold in 1992 and 1996, and collected the bronze medal at the 1988 Olympics.

Right: The historic 1992 USA Basketball "Dream Team," which first rolled through the Americas Olympic Qualifying Tournament in Portland with a 6-0 record, then later in July, the U.S. squad went 8-0 to claim the Barcelona Olympics gold medal.

An 11-member Board of Directors governs USA Basketball. Jerry Colangelo, 2005-2016 USA Basketball Men's National Team Managing Director, serves as Chairman of the Board for a second quadrennium. Also members of the Board of Directors are: NBA appointees Kim Bohuny, NBA Senior Vice President, Basketball Operations International; Mark Tatum, NBA Deputy Commissioner/ Chief Operating Officer; NCAA appointees Dan Gavitt, NCAA Vice President of Men's Basketball Championships; Mark Lewis, NCAA Executive Vice President of Championships and Alliances; Chris Plonsky, University of Texas Women's Athletics Director/ Athletics External Services; Scholastic Director Bob Gardner, Executive Director, National Federation of State High School Associations; National Organizations Representative Jim Carr, NAIA President and Chief Executive Director; at-large representative Walter Palmer, NBPA Deputy Executive Director, International Development and Marketing; and athlete representatives Chauncey Billups, 2010 World Championship gold medalist, and three-time Olympic gold medalist Katie Smith.

Rick Stewart

Andrew D. Bernstein

Serving since January 2001 as CEO/Executive Director is Jim Tooley, who has been with USA Basketball since 1993.

From 2012 through 2014, 1400 men and women players and 165 coaches participated in USA Basketball, including USA men's and women's teams, USA trials and USA team training camps. USA men's and women's teams between 2012-14 compiled a spectacular 109-0 win-loss record in FIBA and FIBA Americas competitions. Adding in results from the World University Games and the Nike Hoop Summit, USA teams are a striking 122-4.

Additionally, USA 3x3 teams posted a 65-8 record in official FIBA and FIBA Americas 3x3 competitions.

USA teams are the current men's and women's champions of the Olympics; men's FIBA World Cup and women's FIBA World Championship; men's and women's FIBA U19 and U17 World Championships; men's and women's U18 and U16 FIBA Americas Championships; FIBA 3x3 Women's World Championship, FIBA 3x3 Women's U18 World Championship and women's Youth Olympic Games.

USA Basketball ranks No. 1 in all of FIBA's categories, including combined, men's, women's, boys and girls.

USA Basketball also sanctions U.S. basketball team tours of foreign countries and foreign basketball team tours of the U.S., as well as oversees the certification of FIBA and USA Basketball officials and the assignment of those officials to international competitions, and the licensing of players to play professionally overseas.

A brief synopsis of the various competitions in which USA Basketball teams participate includes:

Olympic Games

Men's and women's Olympic basketball competition is held every four years (2016, 2020, etc.). For a second-straight Olympics, the USA captured double gold at the 2012 London Olympics with both the men's and women's teams compiling 8-0 records. The USA men have captured the gold in 14 of the 17 Olympics in which they have competed and compiled an incredible 130-5 record. The USA women have earned the gold in five-consecutive Olympics and boast of a sterling 50-3 record. The 2016 Summer Olympic Games will be held Aug. 5-21 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

FIBA World Cup/World Championship

The FIBA Basketball World Cup, known from 1950 until 2010 as the FIBA World Championship for Men and the FIBA World Championship for Women, are the flagship events of FIBA competitions. Held every four years, the USA again swept double gold in 2014. The next FIBA Basketball World Cup will be in 2019, while the World Championship for Women will be held in 2018 in Spain.

Pan American Games

Started in 1951 for men and 1955 for women, the Pan American Games are held every four years (2015, 2019, etc.) in the year preceding the Olympics. Countries from FIBA Americas are eligible to compete. The USA men have an 87-15 overall record, winning eight of a possible 16 gold medals, while the USA women have won seven of 14 gold medals, including 2007, and own a 74-14 record. The 2014 USA Women's World Championship Team posted an unblemished 6-0 record in Istanbul, Turkey, to win a second straight FIBA World Championship title.

Pan American Games are slated to be held in Toronto, Canada.

World University Games

The World University Games are held for men and women every two years (2015, 2017, etc.), and only current university student-athletes or recent graduates are eligible. The USA men in 21 appearances own 13 gold, three silver and three bronze medals, while the U.S. women in 17 appearances have won nine golds, six silvers and one bronze medal. The 2015 World University Games will be held in Gwangju, South Korea.

U19 / U18 Championships

USA Basketball also fields men's and women's national teams for players 19 years old or younger. FIBA now holds U19 World Championships every two years (2015, 2017, etc.). In 2013 the USA women finished 9-0 to capture gold, and the USA men also compiled a 9-0 record to earn gold. USA Basketball also fields teams featuring players 18 years old or younger for FIBA Americas U18 qualifying tournaments that are set to be held in 2016, 2018, etc.

U17 / U16 Championships

FIBA initiated in 2010 the U17 World Championships for players 17 years old or younger and now holds the event every two years (2016, 2018, etc.). In 2014 USA men's and women's teams both returned home with gold medals. USA Basketball also selects national teams featuring players 16 years old or younger for FIBA Americas U16 qualifying tournaments that will be held in 2015, 2017, etc.

Nike Hoop Summit

The Nike Hoop Summit is the country's premiere annual basketball game featuring America's top male high school seniors taking on a World Select Team comprised of top players 19 years old or younger from around the world. Played each April, the USA enjoys a 12-6 series lead. The 2016 Nike Hoop Summit will be played April 9 at the Moda Center in Portland, Oregon.

3x3 World Championships

FIBA initiated 3x3 competitions in 2010 and now conducts 3x3 World Championships every other year (2015, 2017, etc.), 3x3 U18 World Championships for men and women yearly (except when the Youth Olympic Games are held) and the Youth Olympic Games every four years (2018, 2022, etc.). The USA women are the defending gold medalists at the FIBA 3x3 World Championship, the Youth Olympic Games and the FIBA 3x3 U18 World Championship.

2013 FIBA AMERICAS U16 CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WOMEN

Cancun, Mexico

June 19-23, 2013

The 2013 USA Women's U16 National Team cruised past its five opponents en route to the FIBA Americas U16 gold medal by an incredible margin of 63.8 points per game.

Twenty points from eventual tournament MVP Asia Durr led the USA past Brazil 76-20 in its opening game on June 19. Katie Lou Samuelson added nine points and six rebounds, while DeJanae Boykin had eight points and six rebounds and Lauren Cox had seven points and eight boards.

Against Argentina the next day, the USA led comfortably at halftime before outscoring Argentina 38-6 in the third to blow the game wide open on its way to a 98-28 win. Durr again led the U.S. with 23 points, and she made 7-of-10 from the free throw line to set a USA U16 record for free throws attempted. Additionally, the USA's 30 3-point attempts established a USA U16 single-game team high. Crystal Dangerfield added 16 points; Arike Ogunbowale contributed 15 points; Boykin finished with 12 points and 12 rebounds; and Samuelson added 11 points and eight rebounds.

Capitalizing on its depth and size, the USA overpowered Costa Rica for a lopsided 106-19 win. Holding Costa Rica to just eight field goals for the entire game, the U.S. offense featured seven players in double-digit scoring, and Samuelson led with 20 points.

The USA took control of its semifinal contest against host Mexico in the first quarter and never looked back, sailing in for a 101-29 win to advance to the gold medal game. Three players finished with 16 points, including Samuelson; Cox, who added eight rebounds; and Ogunbowale, who collected four steals.

In a battle of undefeated teams that saw the game tied 27-all at halftime, the USA rode a 31-7 third quarter to an 82-48 win over Canada, capturing the gold medal with conviction.

Durr finished the game with three USA U16 single-game records, and Samuelson shot 8-of-8 from deep to set U.S. records for 3-pointers made and percentage on her way to 24 points. Cox barely missed a triple-double with 10 points, 12 rebounds and a USA U16 single-game record nine blocks. Further, the USA established a team record with 30 3-point attempts.

In the bronze medal game, Brazil beat Mexico 70-56.

The tournament's top four finishers, the USA, Canada, Brazil and Mexico all qualified for the 2014 FIBA U17 World Championship.

For the tournament, set nine USA U16 competition records, and four U.S. players averaged double-digit scoring, including Durr (18.4 ppg.), Samuelson (16.0 ppg.), Cox (11.8 ppg.) and Ogunbowale (10.0 ppg.).

2011 FIBA AMERICAS U16 CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WOMEN

Merida, Mexico
June 13-18, 2011

Led by Jill Rankin Schneider, the USA Women's U16 National Team went a perfect 5-0 to capture the gold medal at the 2011 FIBA Americas U16 Championship in Merida, Mexico. Scoring an average of 87.8 points per game, the USA won its five contests by an average of 43.2 points per game.

Along with runner-up Brazil and Canada, which topped Puerto Rico 53-36 to earn the bronze medal, the USA earned a qualifying berth into the 2012 FIBA U17 World Championship.

In the USA's first game, Mercedes Russell tallied 21 points and set USA U16 single-game records of 15 rebounds and five blocked shots to help lead the U.S. to a 71-54 win over Brazil. As a team, the red, white and blue set a single-game record of 58 rebounds, but the mark only lasted one night.

The following evening, the USA recorded a record 83 rebounds, including 41 offensive boards, en route to an 82-46 win over Argentina on June 14. As the USA's leading scorer with 22 points and 11 rebounds, Rebecca Greenwell established USA U16 single-game highs for field goals attempted (21) and 3-pointers attempted (10).

The U.S. wrapped up pool play with an 82-point win over Venezuela, 114-32. The Americans also established an assists record with 32, and Reece' Caldwell tied the individual assists mark with six. Five players finished in double-digit scoring for the USA, including Greenwell and Stephanie Mavunga with 18 points, Jannah Tucker with 17 points, Jatarie White with 14 points and Taya Reimer with 10.

The USA had no problem taking care of Puerto Rico, thanks in large part to a 23-0 run in the second period to take control of the game before cruising to a 99-51 win. The U.S. was led by 20 points and six rebounds from Greenwell, 16 points and eight rebounds from White and 14 points and 13 boards from Russell.

After taking an early lead and capturing the game's momentum, the USA women remained undefeated and earned the gold medal with a dominating 73-40 win over Brazil. Eleven of 12 players scored for the USA, including four in double figures. Linnae Harper led the way with 12 points; followed by Tucker with 11 points; Greenwell with 10 points; and Russell with 10 points and 12 rebounds.

Greenwell was named co-MVP of the tournament, an honor she shared with Brazil's Izabella Frederico Sangalli.

In addition to the single-game marks established, Greenwell set competition records for points averaged (15.6), field goals made (62) and 3-pointers made (11); Russell set highs for rebounding (11.4) and blocked shots (4.0); and Harper owns the steals mark (3.4).

As a team, the USA established competition records for rebounds (322), rebounds averaged (64.4), blocked shots averaged (9.6) and steals averaged (17.4).

2009 FIBA AMERICAS U16 CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WOMEN

Mexico City, Mexico

August 10-14, 2009

Topping opponents by an average of 70.0 ppg., the 2009 USA Basketball Women's U16 National Team rolled undefeated to capture the inaugural FIBA Americas U16 Championship gold medal in convincing fashion Aug. 10-14 at Juan de la Barrera Gym in Mexico City, Mexico.

Along with the USA, silver medalist Canada and bronze medalist Argentina each earned a berth into the 2010 FIBA U17 World Championship.

Five U.S. players averaged double figures to help the USA rank first in 13 of 19 team statistical categories in the eight-team tournament. The USA topped the list in points averaged (108.6), field goal (.490), 3-point (.423) and free throw percentage (.710), rebounding margin (+19.0) and assist-to-turnover ratio (2.62).

The red, white and blue opened play on Aug. 10 with a 128-17 blowout of Dominican Republic that featured 21 points and four 3-pointers from Kaleena Mosqueda-Lewis, followed by 14 points from Justine Hartman. The USA held Dominican Republic to a total of six made baskets and two made free throws for the entire game while shooting 63.4 percent and dishing out 22 assists.

The following afternoon, Betnijah Laney tallied 20 points to lead seven U.S. players in double figures as the American women easily overpowered Puerto Rico 114-37 on Aug. 11.

Hartman again added 14 points, followed by 12 from Ariel Massengale.

The USA wrapped up pool play and secured the No. 1 seed into the semifinals with a 93-33 win over Argentina on Aug. 12. The U.S. defense held Argentina to 18.5 percent from the field (12-65 FGs) and forced 28 turnovers as Elizabeth Williams tallied 18 points, followed by 16 points and eight rebounds from Breanna Stewart.

Mosqueda-Lewis and Massengale teamed up for 24 and 23 points, respectively, as the USA crushed Brazil 105-54 in the semifinals on Aug. 13. The USA shot 53.7 percent from 3-point, including 5-of-8 from deep by Massengale and 4-of-6 from Jordan Adams, who finished with 12 points.

Following a first quarter fight from Canada, the USA outscored its opponent by 20 points in the second quarter to help secure an early lead and an impressive 103-52 win and the gold medal on Aug. 14. Williams, who led five U.S. players in double figures with 19 points and seven rebounds, was named the Most Valuable Player of the 2009 U16 Championship.

Mosqueda-Lewis averaged 14.0 ppg. to lead the U.S. scorers, followed by 13.4 ppg. and a team-high 5.2 rpg. from Williams. Laney averaged 13.2 ppg., Massengale contributed 12.0 ppg. and a team-high 4.8 apg. and Hartman added 10.4 ppg.
