USA BASKETBALL EXPERIENCE

Five gold medalists from the 2016 USA U18 National Team that qualified USA Basketball for the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup for Women, as well as 2015 USA U19 World Cup gold medalist Crystal Dangerfield, headline the team members with prior USA Basketball experience.

Gold medlists returning from the 2016 USA U18 National Team are Jeannie Boehm, Chennedy Carter, Tyasha Harris, Ruthy Hebard and Megan Walker.

Dangerfield, who was named to the 2016 USA U18 team before being sidelined by injury, also won a gold medal on the 2013 USA U16 National Team.

Other five-on-five medalists include Joyner Holmes, who captured gold with the 2014 USA U17 World Cup Team, and Christyn Williams, who returned home with a bronze medal as a member of the 2016 USA U17 World Championship Team.

Walker claimed a silver for the USA at the 2016 FIBA 3x3 U18 World Cup, and Williams returned from China with the 2017 FIBA 3x3 U18 World Cup gold medal.

Further, Hebard competed in the USA Basketball Women's 3x3 National Tournament April 8-9 at the USOTC, which saw Hebard's Ducks advance to the championship game and Williams captured the 2017 USA 3x3 U18 National Tournament title, which qualified her to represent USA Basketball at the 2017 FIBA 3x3 U18 World Cup.

Reili Richardson participated in the 2016 USA U18 National Team Trials; Holmes was on the roster for the 2015 USA U19 World Championship Team trials; Dangerfield, Hebard and Walker and competed for a spot at the 2014 USA U17 World Championship Team trials; while Harris, Holmes, Alecia Sutton and Walker took part in the 2013 USA U16 National Team trials.

JUST THE FACTS

Originally known as the FIBA Junior World Championship, FIBA changed the names of its age-based world championships in 2005 to reflect the age of eligibility, and recently updated the names of all of its world championships to world cups. The tournament was held every four years starting in 1985. FIBA in 2005 modified its calendar and now conducts the U19 World Cup every other year. USA women's teams are 73-12 in U19/Junior World Cups, capturing a sixth-consecutive gold in 2015 with a 7-0 record.

Following the July 22-25 preliminary round, the 16 competing nations will be seeded according to group play, and all participating teams will advance to the July 26 round of 16. Winners will advance to the July 28 medal quarterfinals, while the remaining teams will continue playing out for classification. The medal semifinals will be held July 29, and the gold and bronze medal games are slated for July 30.

Notable players to represent the USA at the FIBA U19 World Championship include: Alana Beard (2001), Essence Carson (2005), Tamika Catchings (1997), Bria Hartley (2011), Crystal Langhorne (2005), Jantel Lavender (2007), Lisa Leslie (1989), Rebecca Lobo (1993), Maya Moore (2007), Nnemkadi Ogwumike (2009), Vickie Orr (1985), Cappie Pondexter (2001), Katie Smith (1993), Dawn Staley (1989), Azurá Stevens (2015), Breanna Stewart (2011 and MVP of the 2013 U19 World Championship), Diana Taurasi (2001), Morgan Tuck (2011 and 2013) and A'ja Wilson (2013 and MVP of the 2015 U19 World Championship).

IN GOOD COMPANY

USA BASKETBALL EXPERIENCE TAKE 2

In addition to the athletes, all three members of the USA U19 coaching staff have international experience as coaches and players. The trio of head coach Suzie McConnell-Serio and assistant coaches Kamie Ethridge and Charlotte Smith teamed up last summer to coach the 2016 USA U18 National Team to gold and a berth in the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup.

As an athlete, McConnell-Serio was a two-time Olympian who captured gold in 1988 and finished with a bronze medal in 1992. She also claimed gold as a member of the 1986 USA World Championship Team, 1991 USA World University Games Team and 1985 USA R. William Jones Cup Team.

Ethridge was a teammate of McConnell-Serio's on the gold-medal winning 1988 U.S. Olympic and 1986 USA World Championship teams and also won gold with USA teams in the 1987 Pan American Games, 1986 Goodwill Games and the 1982 and 1983 U.S. Olympic Festival, and a silver at the 1985 World University Games.

Smith earned three gold medals and two silvers during her time as a USA Basketball athlete, with golds coming in the 1997 USA Women's International Invitational, 1996 R. William Jones Cup and 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival; and silvers in the 1995 World University Games and 1992 USA U18 National Team.

ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS

Of the nine athletes who recently completed their freshman season in college, seven earned conference honors, including Bella Alarie, who was named 2017 Freshman of the Year in the Ivy League, as well asl All-Ivy first team. Further, Ruthy Hebard (Pacific-12) and Joyner Holmes (Big 12) earned all-conference first team honors.

In addition to the aforementioned athletes, named to conference all-freshman teams were Crystal Dangerfield (American), Tyasha Harris (SEC) and Kayla Overbeck (SEC); while Reili Richardson earned Pacific-12 Conference All-Freshman honorable mention.

WHO PICKED THE TEAM?

As with most USA Basketball teams, selection is done by committee and the USA U19 World Cup Team was selected by the USA Basketball Women's Junior National Team Committee.

Chairing the selection committee is George Washington University head coach Jennifer Rizzotti, who directed the 2011 USA U19 World Championship and 2010 USA U18 National teams to gold medal finishes and served as support staff for the 2014 USA World Championship and 2016 U.S. Olympic teams.

In addition to Rizzotti, members of the committee include 2008 Olympic gold medalist Kara Lawson Barling as the athlete representative, and joining Rizzotti as representatives of the NCAA are University of

U19 LAUNCHING PAD

Since the inception of the FIBA U19 World Cup, formerly the FIBA Junior World Championship, in 1985, 14 eventual U.S. Olympic and/or World Championship medalists got their first, real taste of what it takes to compete at the international level by playing in the U19 World Cup. Alana Beard (2001), Tamika Catchings (1997), Dena Head (1989), Sonja Henning (1989), Lisa Leslie (1989), Rebecca Lobo (1993), Maya Moore (2007), Nnemkadi Ogwumike (2009), Vickie Orr (1985), Cappie Pondexter (2001), Katie Smith (1993), Dawn Staley (1989), Breanna Stewart (2011, 2013) and Diana Taurasi (2001) were all challenged internationally at the U19s and went on to medal at the Olympics and/or World Cup.

It has also been a launching pad for future international stars. Australia's Lauren Jackson and Penny Taylor were defeated in overtime by Tamika Catchings and the 1997 USA Junior World Championship Team in the gold medal game, which marked the USA's historic first gold medal victory in the event. Also competing in the 1997 Junior Worlds was a young, rising Spanish star and eventual two-time Olympian, Laia Palau.

More recent international standouts who first turned heads at the U19s include Australia's Liz Cambage, Canada's Plouffe sisters Katherine and Michelle and Spain's Astou Ndour at the 2011 U19s. In 2013, which saw the return of Ndour, the event featured France's Olivia Epoupa and Spain's Leticia Romero Gonzalez; while 2015 was a coming out party for Russia's Maria Vadeeva and Spain's Angela Salvadores.

HIGH SCHOOL ALL-AMERICANS

All three high school athletes in 2016-17, two of whom are rising college freshmen and one, Christyn Williams, who is a rising high school senior, earned All-American honors for their play this past season.

Megan Walker, the 2017 Naismith, Gatorade, WBCA and MaxPreps Girls High School Basketball Player of the Year, headlines the prep standouts on the U19 roster.

Chennedy Carter and Walker were WBCA All-Americans; Naismith All-Americans included Carter (second team), Walker (first team) and Williams (third team); while the MaxPreps All-American lists featured Carter (second team), Walker (first team) and Williams (third team).

In addition to earning the Gatorade National Player of the Year award, Walker (Virginia) collected her Gatorade State Player of the Year trophy, as did Williams (Arkansas).

SUZIE McCONNELL-SERIO

USA U19 WORLD CUP TEAM HEAD COACH

UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH HEAD COACH

After serving as the head coach for the gold-medal winning 2016 USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team that qualified the United States for the 2017 FIBA U19 Women's Basketball World Cup, University of Pittsburgh head coach Suzie McConnell-Serio returns to lead the USA U19 World Cup Team this summer.

McConnell-Serio directed the 2016 USA U18 National Team to a perfect 5-0 mark at the FIBA Americas U18 Championship in Valdivia, Chile, where the top four teams advanced to the 2017 U19 World Cup.

This summer marks the third USA Basketball coaching assignment for McConnell-Serio. She also helped the USA to a 6-0 record and gold medal as an assistant coach at the 2011 World University Games.

As a USA Basketball athlete, she earned four gold medals from international competitions, including at the 1988 Olympics, the 1986 FIBA World Championship, the 1991 World University Games and the 1985 R. William Jones Cup, and a bronze medal at the 1992 Olympics.

Additionally, she served on the USA Basketball Executive Committee from 2001-2004.

In 10 seasons (2007-08 to present) as a collegiate head coach, she owns a 180-135 (.571 winning percentage) record and has advanced teams to postseason play six times.

After an 11-20 campaign in her first season with the Panthers, McConnell-Serio guided Pitt to a 20-12 overall record in 2014-15, the NCAA Tournament second round and she was named as a 2015 Naismith National Coach of the Year semifinalist.

In her four seasons (2013-14 to present) at Pitt, McConnell-Serio owns a 57-67 record.

Prior to Pitt, she spent six seasons at the helm of the Duquesne University women's basketball program (2007-08 to 2012-13), where she compiled a 123-68 overall record (.644) and reached five consecutive WNITs.

In her first season in 2007-08, Duquesne finished 15-15, a dramatic improvement for a team that had been 7-20 the year prior.

She followed that up with the program's first 20-win season and a record for wins at the time with a 20-12 slate in 2008-09. Also in 2009, Duquesne reached the school's first postseason berth with a WNIT appearance.

In all, McConnell-Serio's Duquesne teams earned at least 20 wins and advanced to the WNIT in each of her last five seasons, including reaching the 24-win mark in 2010-11 and 2012-13.

McConnell-Serio spent nearly four seasons (2003 through July 2006) as the head coach of the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx. In her first season, she led the Lynx to a then-record for wins with an 18-16 finish, including a trip to the franchise's first WNBA Playoffs. The Lynx again finished 18-16 in 2004, made another playoff appearance and McConnell-Serio was tabbed the 2004 WNBA Coach of the Year.

She began her coaching career at Oakland Catholic High School in Pittsburgh, where she worked for 13 seasons (1990-91 through 2002-03) and won three Class 4A state titles (1993, 2001 and 2003) and four District 7 (WPIAL) championships.

She compiled a 321-86 overall record (.789) at Oakland Catholic and averaged more than 24 wins per season. Nearly a dozen of her former players went on to earn NCAA Division I scholarships.

As an athlete, she played four varsity seasons at Penn State University (1984-85 through 1987-88), where she was the first All-American selection in Penn State women's basketball history (Kodak and Street & Smith's in 1988). Four times she earned All-Atlantic 10 Conference first team, and she was awarded the 1988 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award. She compiled a 95-33 record and four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances as a Nittany Lion. She set NCAA Division I records for career assists (1,307), assists in a season (355 in 1986-87) and season assist average (11.8 in 1996-97). Her assist total and assists per game led the nation in 1985-86 and 1986-87.

Drafted 16th overall in the 1998 WNBA Draft by the Cleveland Rockers, she played three seasons with Cleveland. She was named WNBA Newcomer of the Year and to the All-WNBA first team in 1998, and she earned the Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award in 1998 and 2000.

McConnell-Serio was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame with the Class of 2008 and the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 2001. She has been honored as a USA Today All-Time Women's Basketball Team selection, as one of Sports Illustrated's Top 50 Pennsylvania Athletes of the Century and as the best basketball player of all-time, male or female, 5'4" or shorter in the Oct. 29, 2007 issue of Sports Illustrated. Additionally, McConnell-Serio earned the Dapper Dan Sportswoman of the Year award, which recognizes a sportswoman who shined the brightest light on Pittsburgh in the preceding year, in 1999 and 2010.

KAMIE ETHRIDGE

USA U19 WORLD CUP TEAM ASSISTANT COACH

UNIVERSITY OF NORTHERN COLORADO HEAD COACH

After serving as an assistant coach for the gold-medal winning 2016 USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team that qualified the United States for the 2017 FIBA U19 Women's Basketball World Cup, University of Northern Colorado head coach Kamie Ethridge returns as an assistant coach for the USA U19 World Cup Team this summer.

Having recently completed her third year as head coach at Northern Colorado after spending 26 seasons on the sidelines at four different universities, Ethridge is a former University of Texas All-American, and she is a four-time USA Basketball medalist.

Ethridge won gold medals with USA Basketball at the 1988 Olympics, the 1987 Pan American Games, the 1986 FIBA World Championship and the 1986 Goodwill Games. She also won a silver medal at the 1985 World University Games, and she played for the gold medal winning South teams in the 1982 and 1983 U.S. Olympic Festivals.

Ethridge also served a four-year term (1997-2000) on the USA Basketball Women's Junior National Team Committee, which selected college-aged teams, which competed in events such as the World University Games, Pan American Games and R. William Jones Cup.

In the summer of 1999, she was invited to lead a point guard camp in Colorado Springs, Colorado, for current, past and prospective USA Basketball talent.

In her third year at Northern Colorado, Ethridge has compiled a 57-37 (.606 winning percentage) overall record, posted a pair of 20-plus win seasons and earned a postseason berth.

In her first year at UNC in 2014-15, she led the Bears to a 22-13 record, which was a program high for wins, and the third round of the WNIT.

She again reached the 22-win plateau in 2016-17 after guiding the Bears to a 22-8 record, including a 14-4 mark in league play for a third-place regular season finish in the Big Sky Conference.

Ethridge launched her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Texas in 1987-88, before spending one season playing professionally for OECE in Italy.

She returned to the coaching ranks in 1989-90 as a graduate assistant at Univesity of Northern Illinois, prior to being named as an assistant coach for UNI in 1990-91.

She then went to Vanderbilt University, where she was an assistant coach for five seasons (1991-92 through 1995-96). While there, she helped Vanderbilt to two Southeastern Conference Tournament titles and to the NCAA Sweet 16 in all five seasons, as well as the 1993 Final Four.

After that, she spent 18 seasons as an associate head coach at Kansas State (1996-97 through 2013-14), helping the Wildcats to a record of 350-226 over that span. She helped lead K-State to nine NCAA postseason tournaments and six NCAA Sweet 16s, four WNIT postseason tournaments, including winning the 2006 WNIT Championship, and two Big 12 Championship titles.

In her four years (1981-82 through 1985-86) as an athlete at the University of Texas, Ethridge helped the Longhorns to a 131-37 (.780) record over her collegiate career.

She was MVP in the 1986 NCAA National Championship game, which Texas won to finish the season with a 34-0 record to become the first undefeated NCAA Division I women's team in history. She played in the NCAA Sweet 16 in all four seasons and the Elite Eight twice. She was a two-time WBCA All-American (1985 and 1986) and was the 1986 Wade Trophy, Frances Pomeroy Naismith and Honda-Broderick Cup Award winner.

Originally from Lubbock, Texas, Ethridge went to high school at Monterey High School, where she was named Texas Player of the Year.

She was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2002 and the Texas Women's Athletics Hall of Honor and the Texas Women's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000.

CHARLOTTE SMITH

ELON UNIVERSITY HEAD COACH

After serving as an assistant coach for the gold-medal winning 2016 USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team that qualified the United States for the 2017 FIBA U19 Women's Basketball World Cup, Elon University head coach Charlotte Smith returns as an assistant coach for the USA U19 World Cup Team this summer.

As a USA Basketball athlete, Smith won a gold medal at the 1996 R. William Jones Cup and silver medals at the 1995 World University Games and 1992 FIBA Americas U18 Championship (then known as the Junior World Championship Qualifying Tournament). She also played for the 1997 USA Basketball Women's International Invitational Team, the 1994 USA Select Team and at the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival.

Having recently concluded her sixth and arguably most successful season (2011-12 to present) as the head coach at Elon, Smith has compiled a 114-77 record (.597 winning percentage) and advanced teams to postseason play four times, including each of the past three years.

In 2016-17 Smith guided her squad to a 27-7 mark, including a 16-2 record in Colonial Athletic Association play for the CAA regular season title, and earned the CAA Tournament crown for an historic first NCAA Tournament berth for the Phoenix.

Not only was the NCAA Tournament appearance a first for the program, this season also marked Elon's first conference regular season and tournament title since elevating to NCAA Division I status. The 27 victories was another high-water mark for the Phoenix, which previously listed a season-best 20 wins in 2010-11.

For her efforts, Smith was tabbed the 2017 CAA Coach of the Year, the first time since 1981 that an Elon women's basketball coach earned a conference coach of the year award. She also was honored as the 2017 Eastern College Athletic Conference Coach of the Year.

Smith in 2015-16 guided Elon to an 18-13 record and the WNIT first round.

In its inaugural season in the CAA in 2014-15, Smith led Elon to a 19-12 record, an 11-7 conference mark and the school's first WNIT appearance.

Prior to competing in the CAA, Smith steered Elon in her first three seasons to a 50-44 record (.531) and the the 2013 Women's Basketball Invitational quarterfinals.

As an assistant coach at University of North Carolina for nine seasons (2002-03 through 2010-11), Smith helped the Tar Heels to a 257-54 record (.826), including a 100-30 (.769) mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play, three ACC regular season titles, and four ACC Tournament crowns.

The Tar Heels earned an NCAA Tournament berth in each of her nine seasons on the sideline and advanced as far as the 2006 and 2007 Final Four and the 2005, 2008 and 2011 Elite Eight.

The most decorated player in UNC history, Smith was a four-year letterwinner for the Tar Heels from 1991-92 through 1994-95 and is one of only two UNC women's basketball players to have had her jersey retired.

She earned a pair of ESPYs in 1995 as the Women's Basketball Player of the Year and for producing the Most Outstanding College Basketball Play of the Year after her buzzer-beating shot to win the 1994 NCAA Championship game.

The All-American scored 2,094 points and grabbed 1,200 rebounds during her career and was named the 1994 NCAA Final Four Most Outstanding Player.

The 1992 ACC Rookie of the Year, Smith earned All-ACC and ACC Tournament MVP honors in her junior and senior seasons as the Tar Heels claimed back-to-back tournament crowns.

In 2002, she was named to the ACC's 50th Anniversary team as one of the top players in conference history.

Following her collegiate career, Smith played professional basketball in Italy, where she was MVP of the Italian All-Star Game for the 1995-96 season. She also spent the 1999-2000 season there.

The Colorado Xplosion picked Smith in the third round (17th overall) of the initial American Basketball League draft in 1996. She remained in the league until it folded in Dec. 1998, playing for Colorado and the San Jose Lasers and earning All-Star honors.

Smith was the 33rd pick in the 1999 WNBA draft by Charlotte and played six seasons for the Sting before moving to Washington in 2005 and to Indiana in 2006.

A native of Shelby, North Carolina, she graduated from Shelby High School, where she earned all-state honors and was her team's MVP all four years. Smith completed her UNC bachelor's degree in sociology in 1999.

In May 2015, Smith was inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame.

ELEVENTH FIBA U19 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — 2015

Chekhov, Russia • July 18–26, 2015

Behind the leadership of three-time Olympic gold medalist as an athelte and one as an Olympic assistant coach, Dawn Staley, the USA Basketball U19 World Championship Team shook off the pressure of being five-time defending champions at the FIBA U19 World Championship and took home a sixth-straight gold medal from Chekhov, Russia.

Along the way, A'ja Wilson, whose USA U19 record 30 points in the gold medal game helped her earn tournament MVP honors, became just the fourth U.S. athlete to have competed on two USA U19 teams after also claiming gold in 2013.

Opening with a 72-57 victory over Spain on July 18, the USA received 18 points and 10 rebounds from Wilson, while Napheesa Collier had 13 points and 14 boards.

The USA scored 44 points in the paint and 22 points off of 25 offensive rebounds, en route to a 88-62 win over China on July 18. Collier and Wilson tied for team-high scoring honors with 17 points apiece, and Wilson also grabbed 10 boards.

In its final preliminary game, the U.S. squad outplayed Egypt 104-41 as every member of the team scored, led by 15 points each from Mariya Moore and Shakayla Thomas.

Entering the round of 16, Wilson's 18 points led the U.S. as it dispatched Argentina 89-39 on July 22.

Opening with an 11-0 run, the U.S. cruised past Canada 93-45 in the July 24 quarterfinals. Again every member of the team scored, led by 12 points apiece from Collier and Moore.

The USA's inside game proved to be too much as the Americans outscored Spain 66-24 in the paint en route to a 80-65 medal semifinal victory on July 25. Collier shot 10-of-13 from the field and finished with 24 points and 14 rebounds, while Wilson had 20 points and 16 rebounds.

Played in front of a packed full and deafening arena, the USA captured the gold medal in a 78-70 fight-to-the-finish victory against host Russia to capture a record sixth-straight and seventh overall U19 gold medal on July 26.

In a game that saw six lead changes and 10 tied scores, the Americans trailed 21-19 at the end if the first quarter. Closing the half on a 9-0 run, the U.S. took a 39-34 lead at halftime and led by four points, 57-53, at the end of the third quarter.

With 4:21 to play and leading by three, 68-65, the USA scored seven-straight points for its largest lead of the night, 75-65, with 2:41 left to play and then held the Russians back in the final minutes to earn the eight-point golden victory.

Wilson was joined on the five-member all-tournament team by Collier, who had 10 points, 10 rebounds and six steals against Russia.

The USA's strong post play provided these staggering statistics: over the seven games the squad averaged 49.1 points per game on its inside play, more than half of its 86.3 average, while limiting opponents to just 18.9 points near the basket. Further, the U.S. capped its seven games by averaging 56.9 rebounds to its opponents' 35.3 a contest.

TENTH FIBA U19 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — 2013

Panevezys and Klaipeda, Lithuania • July 18-28, 2013

For the first time in history, the U.S. headed into the FIBA U19 World Championship with three veteran U19 players who helped USA Basketball claim gold in 2011 -- Duke's Alexis Jones and Connecticut's Breanna Stewart and Morgan Tuck. The trio, combined with Tennessee's Bashaara Graves, rising Kentucky freshman Linnae Harper and Notre Dame commit Brianna Turner, who captured world championship gold at the U17 age level, lent experience to the 2013 USA U19 World Championship Team. Led by Miami's Katie Meier and featuring LSU's Nikki Caldwell and Gonzaga's Kelly Graves as assistant coaches, the U.S. squad traveled to Lithuania in hopes of winning the USA's fifth-straight U19 gold medal.

Not only did the squad post a perfect 9-0 slate en route to attaining its goal, it outscored all comers by a whopping of 43 points a contest.

Reaching triple digits in each of its first four games, the USA dispatched host Lithuania 113-47 to open play, followed by a 103-56 dismantling of China, a lopsided 103-26 win over Mali and a 102-42 victory over Netherlands in the first game of the second round. Stewart led the USA for scoring in its first three outings with 26, 20 and 17 points, respectively; while newcomer A'ja Wilson, the team's youngest member, put up a team-high 20 points against the Netherlands.

Jones scored a game-high 17 points as the USA pulled away from Canada for an eventual 88-54 victory.

Facing also unbeaten France to close preliminary play, the U.S., led by Stewart's 22 points, passed its toughest test of the tournament. Having a tough time shaking the Europeans, with 1:03 left in the game the USA held a slim 65-63 edge. With 32 seconds left Graves had her shot blocked, grabbed her board, and passed the ball out of the key to Tuck with two seconds left on the shot clock. Tuck saw Jones open beyond the arc and Jones found her mark as the shot clock expired with the USA holding a five-point cushion, 68-63, with 28 seconds remaining.

France then got the ball to its 3-point specialist, but Jones was there for the block and the Americans got the board. Tuck, who finished with 16 points, hit one of two from the line to ice the win, 69-63.

Behind Wilson's 19 points, the U.S. overpowered Japan 108-67 in its medals quarterfinals contest.

Meeting Australia in the semis, Stewart scored 14 of her game-high 23 points during a 21-0 run that capped the first half and virtually put the game away, 38-20, at the break before the U.S. went on to earn a 77-54 victory and a rematch versus France.

Behind a stifling defensive effort, as well as 16 points, nine rebounds and three blocked shots from tournament MVP Stewart, the USA held France to eight points in the second half for a 61-28 victory and the gold medal.

NINTH FIBA U19 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — 2011

Puerto Montt, Chile • July 21-31, 2011

Winners of the previous three and four of the past five FIBA U19 World Championship for Women, the U.S. squad, headed by University of Hartford's Jennifer Rizzotti, headed to Puerto Montt, Chile, determined to keep the gold-medal streak alive.

Featuring a young team loaded with talent, all 12 members had previously won gold medals, including seven at the inaugural 2010 FIBA U17 World Championship and five from the 2010 FIBA Americas U18 Championship.

The American women got down to business from the start as they defeated Japan 85-63. Bria Hartley was 3-of-4 from 3-point land to pace the U.S. with 18 points.

Diamond DeShields poured in a game-high 16 points to lead the USA in its second game, a 76-53 victory over Russia.

The USA, paced by 12 points from Breanna Stewart, ran away with a 83-49 victory over Argentina to close preliminary round play atop Group B.

In a game that went down to the wire, the U.S. remained undefeated as it clipped a determined China squad 80-77 to open the second round. The USA was paced to the win by Kaleena Mosqueda-Lewis and Hartley, who scored 19 and 18 points, respectively, on a combined 9-of-16 from beyond the arc.

The Americnas opened up a 31-13 lead in the first quarter and went on to produce a lopsided 94-60 victory over Italy. This time it was Cierra Burdick's turn to lead the team as she came off the bench for a game-high 17 points.

Turnovers and cold shooting plagued the U.S. from the start as Canada handed the U.S. its first loss, 64-52, to close second round play. Ariel Massengale was the only U.S. player to score in double digits and finished with 17 points. The U.S., which fell behind by double digits early, finished the game with 24 miscues and a 36.1 shooting percentage, its lowest of the tournament.

Despite the setback, the U.S. was still in the medal hunt and was paced by 21 points, including 10 in the fourth quarter, from Stewart, as it came from behind for a 70-64 victory over France in the quarterfinals. Down by 13 points early, the U.S. never gave up, took a two-point lead on a pair of Stewart free throws with 1:04 to go and pulled out the six-point win.

The U.S. took the lead in the first quarter and never looked back as it knocked off Brazil 82-66 to advance to the gold medal game. Hartley led the U.S. for the second time in the tournament with 20 points.

The USA wasted no time in jumping out to a 25-15 early advantage and rolling to a 69-46 victory over Spain for the gold medal. Stefanie Dolson, Mosqueda-Lewis and Elizabeth Williams shared game-high scoring honors with 15 points apiece; while Massengale and Stewart were named to the five-member All-FIBA U19 World Championship Team.

Brazil nipped Australia 70-67 for the bronze medal, its first medal of any kind in U19 World Championship history.

EIGHTH FIBA U19 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — 2009

Bangkok, Thailand • July 23 - August 2, 2009

After falling in its opening contest, the USA Women's U19 World Championship Team, led by Northern Illinois University head coach Carol Owens, bounced back to win its final eight games in convincing fashion to stake its claim on the gold medal in Bangkok, Thailand. The gold medal effort was the third straight U19 title and fourth over the last five U19 worlds for the American women.

The USA's Nnemkadi Ogwumike, who averaged team-highs of 13.6 ppg. and 9.9 rpg., was named to the five-member all-tournament team and the well-rounded team effort produced four players who averaged double-digit scoring for the tournament.

Despite 16 points from Ogwumike, who led five players who scored in double digits, the U.S. stumbled in its opener against Spain. The USA overcame a 17-point first half deficit, but ran out of steam in the end, falling 90-86.

The team took the opening loss as a wake-up call and responded by collecting double-digit victories in each of their final eight games.

Ogwumike posted a double-double of 18 points and 14 rebounds as the USA never trailed in an 88-53 win over China and the Americans easily dispatched Mali 100-38, with Kelly Faris leading the balanced U.S. attack with 13 points.

Opening second round action with a 64-50 win over Canada, Kelsey Bone and Samantha Prahalis led the U.S. charge with 14 points apiece.

The USA continued on its roll, handing Russia its first loss as Ogwumike tallied 12 points and 13 rebounds in a 75-56 rout.

Every member of the U.S. team put points on the board as the Americans earned a 109-68 victory over Japan to advance to the medal round. Taber Spani shot 3-of-6 from 3-point and checked in as the USA's top scorer with 15 points.

After trailing by eight points late in the second half, the U.S. fought back to earn an 88-75 quarterfinal victory over France. USA co-captains Skylar Diggins and Ogwumike paved the way with 16 points each.

Advancing to the semifinals, the U.S. received 16 points from Bone on 8-of-11 shooting from the field as it dropped Canada 82-51 to set up a gold medal rematch against Spain.

Facing an undefeated Spanish squad, the U.S. wasted no time in avenging the opening loss. Leading 33-16 at the end of the first period and 49-30 by halftime, the U.S. closed out the U19 Worlds with the 87-71 victory to earn the gold medal. Ogwumike notched her fourth double-double of the tournament with 22 points and a USA U19 World Championship record 20 boards, while Prahalis scored 21 points and Bone tossed in 18.

Argentina claimed its first medal in U19 history with a 58-51 victory over Canada in the bronze medal game.

SEVENTH FIBA U19 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — 2007

Bratislava, Slovakia • July 26 - August 5, 2007

Led by two-time USA Basketball co-Developmental Coach of the Year Doug Bruno, the 2007 USA U19 World Championship Team returned from the FIBA U19 World Championship with a perfect 9-0 record and gold medal.

Dominating its competition by an average margin of 34.6 ppg., the USA broke nine team records and set six new individual highs in the USA U19 record book.

The USA began the tournament with a 95-25 dismantling of Ivory Coast. Led by game-highs of 17 points and 12 rebounds from Krystal Thomas, all 12 U.S. players scored in th e USA's opening contest.

Krystal Thomas, with 17 points and 11 rebounds, notched a double-double the following night as well as the USA recorded a 101-60 blowout of China .

Jantel Lavender and Monica Wright each scored 16 points to help the USA to a 90-50 victory over Lithuania as the U.S. closed preliminary round play undefeated.

To open second round action, the USA jumped to a 20-point first quarter lead over South Korea and never looked back, cruising to a 113-69 win with thel help of 14 points from Melissa Lechlitner and a third double-double from Krystal Thomas, this time 13 points and 13 rebounds.

Matched against Spain, the USA needed all four quarters and 28 points from Jantel Lavender to secure a hard-fought, 74-66 win.

Next facing host Slovakia, the USA recorded a 84-60 victory, highlighted by 24 points from Maya Moore. The USA closed the second round with a 85-66 win against the Czech Republic that featured 25 points from Jantel Lavender.

Matched for a second time against Spain, this time in the semifinal contest, the USA recorded an easier 69-46 victory that was highlighted by 24 points from Maya Moore.

The USA faced an also-unbeaten opponent, Sweden, in the championship game, and, featuring five players in double figures, rolled to an impressive 99-57 win to finish a perfect 9-0 and capture the 2007 U19 World Championship gold medal.

The USA ranked first in 11 of 19 statistical categories, including scoring margin, scoring average (90.0 ppg.), field goal percentage (45.5), rebounding (57.4 rpg), rebounding margin (+18.7 rpg.) and blocked shots (5.8 bpg.).

SIXTH FIBA U19 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — 2005

Tunis, Tunisia • July 15-24, 2005

Formerly known as the FIBA Women's Junior World Championship, the USA's capturing of gold in 2005 marked just the second time the American women had claimed gold.

Crystal Langhorne, who averaged a USA best 16.8 points and 6.4 rebounds a game, while shooting a gaudy 77.5 percent, was named MVP, while Candice Wiggins was also named to the five-member All-U19 World Championship Team.

Directed by head coach Gail Goestenkors of Duke University, her '05 team's performance was dominating. The USA averaged 105.9 ppg. and won its eight games by a whopping average margin of victory of 46.3 points a game. Of the 16 USA team records for the event, the 2005 squad shattered 10. Of 14 USA single game marks, 11 were rewritten and two others tied. In the 2005 U19 World Championship overall statistics, the USA as a team finished ranked tops in 11 categories.

Opening preliminary play July 15 against medal favorite Russia, the U.S. started fast and cruised to a dominating 98-65 victory as Langhorne and Nicky Anosike each tallied 16 points. Congo was no match as the Americans rolled to a 124-37 victory and Wiggins put on a shooting display sinking 7-of-10 3-point shots and finished 28 points. Behind 21 points from Wiggins, 15 more from Erika Arriaran and a 14-point and 12- rebound showing from Anosike, the USA battled past Serbia Montenegro 94-68 on July 17. The U.S. limited Puerto Rico to 22.2 percent shooting and just 28 points for the entire game in a lopsided 116-28 win in which Wiggins scored 21 points, Langhorne added 17 points and 12 rebounds, and Courtney Paris contributed 14 points and 12 boards. Closing out preliminary play against South Korea on July 20, behind 68.4 percent shooting the USA erupted for a 129-74 win as Langhorne, who was a perfect 9-of-9 from the floor, and Erlana Larkins, who made 8-of-9 shots, contributed 21 and 18 points, respectively, and Marissa Coleman accounted for 17 points.

Meeting Hungary on July 22 in the quarterfinals, the U.S. sailed on to an 85-55 victory. Paris led the way for the U.S. with 16 points and eight rebounds.

Matched against 6-1 China in the semifinals, the U.S. only led 24-23 after the first quarter, but outscored China 25-10 in the second period and marched on to a decisive 99-68 win. Langhorne, who made 9-of-10 shots, finished with 23 points.

Facing Serbia & Montenegro for the second time, this time in the gold medal game, the USA opened a 24-12 first quarter lead and went on to post a 97-76 win. Larkins was a perfect 9-of-9 from the field and finished with 20 points, Langhorne made all seven of her shots and added 14 points, while Abby Waner tallied 12 points in the victory.

FIFTH JUNIOR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — 2001

Brno, Czech Republic • July 14-22, 2001

Coached by University of Connecticut mentor Geno Auriemma, the 2001 USA Basketball Women's Junior World Championship Team posted a 6-1 record and finished with the bronze medal.

The USA opened play on July 14 by downing Lithuania 89-71. Alana Beard, Cappie Pondexter and Diana Taurasi all scored 18 points each in the win. Behind 13 points from Ann Strother, the U.S. defeated China 84-52 on July 15, then on July 16 Beard paced the USA with 23 points to push the U.S to an 83-71 victory over Brazil.

The United States trounced Mali 97-29 on July 18 as Taurasi scored a team high 18 points and the USA's 68-point margin of victory went into the U.S. record books as the largest win margin in Junior World Championship play.

Beard scored a U.S. Junior World record 28 points as the United States closed preliminary round play with a 99-80 win over Russia.

Despite 25 points from Taurasi, the defending Junior World Champions were unseated by host Czech Republic as the U.S. dropped its semifinal match to the Czechs 92-88 on July 21. Rallying late, the U.S. closed the gap to 91-86 with 30 seconds left. Following a Pondexter basket that cut the lead to 91-88 with 12.9 seconds to go, the USA's defensive pressure prevented the Czech team from inbounding the ball and the U.S. regained possession. But, before the Americans could inbound the ball, Pondexter was called for an offensive foul to give the ball back to the Czechs. Making one of the two free throws, the game was put out of reach 92-88.

The USA claimed the bronze medal with a 77-72 victory over Australia on July 22. Taurasi led the U.S. with 23 points. A tight contest the entire game, the score was knotted at 47-47 with 6:49 to play in the third when the USA went on 13-2 run to open up a 60-49 lead. By the end of the third quarter the USA was up 12, 67-55, and Australia battled back to 75-70 late in the fourth, but it was too late as the United States went on to claim the bronze.

Beard and Taurasi led the team throughout the tournament and for their efforts both were selected by the coaches and media to the 2001 All-Junior World Championship Team. Taurasi and Beard finished as the third and fifth leading scorers in the tournament, respectively, as Taurasi averaged 19.3 ppg. and Beard scored 18.0 ppg. Rutgers University freshman-to-be Pondexter's 11.0 ppg. listed at No. 24 among the 12

FOURTH JUNIOR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — 1997

Natal, Brazil • July 5–13, 1997

In capturing the 1997 FIBA Women's Junior World Championship gold medal with a 6-1 record in Natal, Brazil, the 1997 USA Juniors made history, becoming the first USA squad to earn a medal of any kind at a FIBA Women's Junior World Championship.

The U.S. opened the tournament by pounding Japan 84-65 on July 5 behind the double-double effort and a then-USA Junior World Championship single game scoring record of 24 points and 11 rebounds by UCLA's Maylana Martin.

Facing the defending Junior World champs Australia next, the U.S. let a 13-point second half lead slip away as the Aussies rallied back from a 59-46 deficit to capture an 80-74 victory. Tamika Catchings led the U.S. with 17 points and 10 rebounds.

Contributing 23 points apiece, Martin and Lynn Pride led the United States to a tight 92-88 victory over Cuba. The USA led by as many as 16 points, however Cuba rallied to within one at 86-85 with 1:40 left. The USA reeled off six consecutive points to regain control 92-85 and went on claim the 92-88 win.

Continuing its winning ways, the U.S., behind a game high 15 points from Kristen Clement, thrashed a then-unbeaten Russia 76-46. With the help of a game high 20 points from Martin, the USA cruised past Spain 70-56 to close-out preliminary play and advance to the medal round.

Meeting Slovakia in the semifinals, Nikki Teasley scored 21 points to lead five U.S. players in double-digit scoring as the United States defeated Slovakia 90-77 to advance to the gold medal contest for the first time in Junior World Championship history.

Backed by 21 points and 10 rebounds from Martin, the USA dethroned defending champion Australia 78-74 in an overtime thriller to capture the 1997 FIBA Junior World Championship gold medal.

Heading into overtime, but only after Australia hit a jumper with three seconds left to tie the contest 66-66 to force the overtime, the Australians scored first. But Catchings scored for the U.S. to knot the game at 68, and the U.S. then recorded a 7-2 spurt to grab a 75-70 advantage with 1:26 remaining in the extra period. Following an Aussie field goal, Martin converted on the second of two free throws to push the Americans' lead to 76-72 at the 1:01 mark. Australia closed to within two points with 30 seconds to go, but with 25 seconds showing on the clock, Teasley made the second of two free throws to give the U.S. a three-point edge, 77-74. The USA's defense kept Australia from scoring and with three seconds to go, Teasley made the first of two free throws and the United States had the 78-74 overtime victory and the gold medal.

THIRD JUNIOR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — 1993

Seoul, South Korea • August 1-8, 1993

USA head coach Jim Foster and the 1993 USA Women's Junior World Championship Team hoped to break with tradition. In the previous two Junior World Championships the USA had not fared well, and despite a gutsy performance by an inexperienced American team that posted the best U.S. record ever at Junior Worlds, 5-2, tradition held strong and the USA again finished out of the medals, placing seventh.

Held in Seoul, South Korea, the United States opened with a convincing victory over Japan, 85-75, but fell short in its next outing when it was ambushed by host South Korea 82-64. Connecticut's Rebecca Lobo led the USA campaign in both contests, posting a stellar 19-point, 19-rebound performance versus Japan, and pouring in 16 points against South Korea.

Standing 1-1 in preliminary pool play, each game now took on new importance for the U.S., which rose to the challenge and riding a 22-point, eight-rebound showing from Dana Johnson, posted a 91-59 triumph over Bulgaria.

With the win over Bulgaria, the United States' medal hopes now depended solely on a win over Russia.

After trading leads for most of the game the USA finally secured the upper hand 63-62 at the 3:36 mark and went on the score the crucial victory over Russia, 73-68. Dana Johnson and Smith tied for top team scoring honors with 15 points each.

With the win, the United States improved it's record to 3-1 and positioned itself, with South Korea and Russia, in a three-way battle for their pool's two medal round berths. All three teams had one game of preliminary pool play remaining, and USA's medal round hopes hinged on the outcome of the next day's games, when the USA faced Zaire and South Korea met Russia.

Behind Woosley's 17 points the USA easily defeated Zaire 64-43, but Russia upset South Korea, 82-68, and the U.S. found itself in a three-way tie for two medal round spots. Under FIBA tie-breaking methods which rely on point differential between the tied teams, the U.S. found itself ranked third behind South Korea and Russia and out of medal contention.

Reeling from its elimination from the medal hunt, the USA came out on the short end of a one-point 75-74 decision against France. Rachel Hemmer paced the U.S. with 20 points and 10 boards. Following the loss to France, the USA rebounded to secure seventh place with a 109-76 thrashing of Japan. The Japanese team felt the wrath of a jilted USA squad as the United States dominated the game from start to finish. Racquel Spurlock led all U.S. scorers with points

Australia and Russia won their semifinal contest to advance to the gold medal game and Australia came out on top recording a 72-54 win. Poland upended host South Korea 74-53 to take the bronze medal.

SECOND JUNIOR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — 1989

Bilbao, Spain • July 23-30, 1989

The United States, directed by University of Virginia coach Debbie Ryan, entered the 1989 Junior Women's World Championship in Bilbao, Spain, with hopes of improving on the USA's 1985 fifth-place finish.

The USA's goal, however, was not realized as the American team finished 3-4 and in seventh place.

In the four USA losses, three came by three or less points and the other was a nine-point overtime decision. The inexperienced USA team featured only three players who had previous experience playing outside of the United States.

The American team dropped its opening game to South Korea in overtime, 93-84, as Tennessee's Dena Head accounted for USA team highs of 17 points and seven rebounds. High school senior-to-be and 17-year-old, 6-5 Lisa Leslie led the U.S. the following day with an impressive 17-point, nine-rebound effort, but the U.S. still came up short, losing 71-69 in a tough contest with Australia.

The U.S. notched its first victory of the '89 Junior World Championship when it recorded a convincing 13-point win over Bulgaria, 78-65. Leslie again paced the U.S. offense, recording 22 points and nine rebounds.

Facing Czechoslovakia in their its fourth game in as many days, the U.S. dropped another down-to-the-wire decision, falling 90-87. University of Georgia star LeJuana Hardmon led the U.S. with 18 points, while Leslie recorded 16 rebounds.

Bouncing back once again, the United States scored a solid 73-62 win over Zaire as Leslie and Carla Holmes each scored 13 points.

The U.S. women recorded yet another narrow loss, suffering a three-point setback to host Spain, 99-96, despite 16-point scoring efforts by Sonja Henning and Julie Zeilstra.

Facing Brazil in the seventh place game and putting earlier disappointment aside, the Americans finally managed to win a close contest and end the tournament on a positive note after nipping the Brazilians, 70-66. Head led the U.S. cause with 17 points.

The Soviet Union junior women successfully defended their 1985 Junior World title with a 109-93 victory over Yugoslavia in the gold medal game. Australia won its first World Championship medal, defeating Czechoslovakia 69-61 for the bronze.

FIRST JUNIOR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — 1985

Colorado Springs, Colorado, USA • August 13-21, 1985

Colorado Springs, Colo. and the U.S. Olympic Training Center played host to the inaugural FIBA Women's Junior World Championship and the Soviet Union captured the first title, as the U.S. finished fifth with a 4-2 record.

Placed in a difficult pool that included the eventual gold medal winning Soviet Union team as well as the silver medalist South Korea squad, the USA dropped two of its first three games, then rebounded to claim wins in its final three games.

Coached by Old Dominion mentor Marianne Stanley, the U.S., despite leading 44-34 at half, lost a 76-70 decision to South Korea. Louisiana State's 6-2 center Alisha Jones led the Americans with 19 points and 13 rebounds. Bouncing back to defeat Australia 79-62, the U.S. cause was again aided by Alisha Jones who was credited with 22 points, eight rebounds and five steals.

Next-up for the U.S. was the co-favorite Soviet Union team. Leading 12-6 early, things went downhill quickly and by half the U.S. found itself trailing by 16 points, 48-32. However, the American squad never quit and on two occasions in the second half managed to narrow the Soviet lead to four points. But cold 37 percent shooting from the field doomed the U.S. to a 92-76 setback. Floretta Jackson headed the U.S. attack with 13 points.

Behind a stellar 21-point, 17-rebound performance by Alisha Jones, and 20 additional points from Dawn Royster, the U.S. got back on the winning path with an 88-73 win over Cuba.

Facing Canada, the USA relied on a balanced offensive attack that saw Alisha Jones lead all U.S. scorers with 10 points, as the USA recorded an 84-47 victory over Canada.

In its final outing of the competition, the USA turned in a 72-62 win over Australia to earn a fifth place finish with a 4-2 record. Mae Ola Bolton of Auburn and Royster each tallied 17 points in the victory.

Alisha Jones spearheaded the Americans' offense averaging a double-double of 15.8 ppg. and 10.8 rpg. Royster was second in scoring, averaging 12.0 ppg. and 9.2 rpg., while Texas Lady Longhorn Yulonda Wimbish concluded the competition averaging 10.3 ppg.

In the bronze medal game, Yugoslavia bounced back from a semifinal loss to the Soviet Union to defeat China, 86-63. Before a crowd of nearly 2,000, the gold medal game saw the Soviet Union erase a 45-41 Korean halftime advantage and earn the gold, 80-75.

USA Basketball Today

Based in Colorado Springs, Colorado, USA Basketball is a nonprofit organization and the national governing body for men's and women's basketball in the United States. As the recognized governing body for basketball in the United States by the International Basketball Federation (FIBA) and the United States Olympic Committee (USOC), USA Basketball is responsible for the selection, training and fielding of USA teams that compete in FIBA sponsored international basketball competitions, as well as for some national competitions, and for the development of youth basketball initiatives that address player development, coach education and safety.

USA Basketball is an organization made up of organizations. There are five member categories.

Professional:
- National Basketball Association
- National Basketball Association Development League
- Women's National Basketball Association

Collegiate:
- National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics
- National Collegiate Athletic Association
- National Junior College Athletic Association

Scholastic:
- National Federation of State High School Associations

Youth:
- Amateur Athletic Union

Associate:
- Athletes In Action
- Basketball Travelers
- College Commissioners Association
- Harlem Globetrotters
- Latin-American Basketball League of Los Angeles, CA
- National Association of Basketball Coaches
- National Basketball Players Association
- National Basketball Retired Players Association
- National Junior College Basketball Coach Association
- National Junior College Women's Coach Association
- National Wheelchair Basketball Association
- USA Deaf Sports Federation
- United States Armed Forces
- Women's Basketball Coaches Association.

USA Basketball was organized in 1974 and known as the Amateur Basketball Association of the United States of America (ABAUSA). The name change to USA Basketball occurred Oct. 12, 1989, shortly after FIBA modified its rules to allow professional basketball players to participate in international competitions. USA Basketball then admitted the NBA as an active member and made the change.

A 12-member Board of Directors governs USA Basketball. Retired General Martin E. Dempsey, the 18th Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, was elected USA Basketball Chairman for the 2017-20 quadrennium. Also members of the Board of Directors are: NBA appointees Kim Bohuny, NBA senior vice president, International Basketball Operations; and Mark Tatum, NBA deputy commissioner and chief operating officer; NCAA appointees Dan Gavitt, NCAA senior vice president/basketball; Bernard Muir, Stanford University director of athletics; and Chris Plonsky, University of Texas director of women's athletics and senior associate athletic director of men's/women's athletics external services; scholastic representative Bob Gardner, executive director, National Federation of State High School Associations; national organizations representative Jim Carr, NAIA president and chief executive director; at-large representative Jordan Schlachter, NBPA chief marketing officer; and athlete representatives Chauncey Billups, 2010 World Championship gold medalist, and three-time Olympic gold medalist Katie Smith. Jerry Colangelo, USA Basketball Men's National Team managing director, rounds out the board and will serve in an ex officio capacity as past chairman.

Serving since January 2001 as CEO is Jim Tooley, who has been with USA Basketball since 1993.

From 2013 through 2016, 2,211 men and women players and 250 coaches participated in USA Basketball, including USA Basketball men's and women's five-on-five and 3x3 teams, USA Basketball trials and USA team training camps.

USA Basketball men's and women's teams between 2013-16 compiled a spectacular 129-2 win-loss record in FIBA and FIBA Americas competitions. Adding in results from the Pan

American Games, World University Games and the Nike Hoop Summit, USA teams are a striking 156-9. Additionally, USA 3x3 teams posted a 79-15 win-loss record in official FIBA and FIBA Americas 3x3 competitions.

USA Basketball ranks No. 1 in all five of FIBA's world ranking categories, including combined, men's, women's, boys and girls.

The USA Basketball Youth Development division is tasked with the development of youth basketball initiatives that address player development, coach education and safety, while promoting, growing, and elevating the game. Current USA Basketball Youth initiatives include coach licensing and education; organization accreditation; coach academies; regional skill camps for boys and girls; open court programs; and a 14U National Tournament for boys and girls.

USA Basketball also sanctions U.S. basketball team tours of foreign countries and foreign basketball team tours of the U.S., as well as oversees the certification of FIBA and USA Basketball officials and the assignment of those officials to international competitions, and the licensing of players to play professionally overseas.

A brief synopsis of the various competitions in which USA Basketball teams participate includes:

The 2016 U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team finished 8-0 and captured gold for a sixth straight Olympics.

Olympic Games

Men's and women's Olympic basketball competition is held every four years (2020, 2024, etc.). For a third-consecutive Olympics, the USA captured double gold at the 2016 Rio Olympics with both the men's and women's teams compiling unblemished 8-0 records. The USA men have captured the gold in 15 of the 18 Olympics in which they have competed and compiled an incredible 138-5 record. The USA women have earned gold in six-consecutive Olympics and boast of a sterling 58-3 record. The 2020 Summer Olympic Games will be held July 24-Aug. 9 in Toyko, Japan.

FIBA World Cup

The FIBA Basketball World Cup, known from 1950 until 2010 as the FIBA World Championship for Men, and the FIBA World Cup for Women, are the flagship events of FIBA competitions. Held every four years, the USA again swept double gold in 2014. The next FIBA Men's Basketball World Cup will be in China in 2019, while the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup will be held in 2018 in Spain.

Pan American Games

Started in 1951 for men and 1955 for women, the Pan American Games are held every four years (2019, 2023, etc.) in the year preceding the Olympics. Countries from FIBA Americas are eligible to compete. The USA men have an 90-17 overall record, winning eight of a possible 17 gold medals, while the USA women have won seven of 15 gold medals, including 2007, and own a 78-15 record. The 2019 Pan American Games are slated to be held in Lima, Peru.

U19 / U18 Championships

USA Basketball also fields men's and women's national teams for players 19-years-old or younger. FIBA now holds U19 World Cups every two years (2017, 2019, etc.). In 2015 the USA women finished 7-0 to capture gold, the USA men likewise compiled a 7-0 record to earn gold. USA Basketball also fields teams featuring players 18-years-old or younger for FIBA Americas U18 qualifying tournaments that are scheduled to be held in 2018, 2020, etc. The USA women are currently the eight-time defending U18 gold medalists while the men are four-time defending U18 champs.

U17 / U16 Championships

FIBA initiated in 2010 the U17 World Cups for players 17-years-old or younger and now holds the event every two years (2018, 2020, etc.). In 2016 USA Basketball men won a fourth-stright gold medal and the women captured a bronze medal. USA Basketball also selects national teams featuring players 16-years-old or younger for FIBA Americas U16 qualifying tournaments that will be held in 2017, 2019, etc.

Nike Hoop Summit

The Nike Hoop Summit is the country's premiere annual basketball game featuring America's top male high school seniors taking on a World Select Team comprised of top players 19-years-old or younger from around the world. Played each April, the USA owns a 14-6 series lead. The 2018 Nike Hoop Summit will be played in April at the Moda Center in Portland, Oregon.

3x3 World Cups

FIBA initiated 3x3 competitions in 2010 and now conducts 3x3 World Cups and 3x3 U18 World Cups for men and women yearly (except in years when the Youth Olympic Games are held), and the Youth Olympic Games, featuring 3x3 competition, is held every four years (2018, 2022, etc.). In 2016, the USA women collected the silver medal at the FIBA 3x3 U18 World Championship, while the USA men's and women's teams won silver and bronze medals, respectively, at the FIBA 3x3 World Championship. Additionally, the USA women are the defending gold medalists at the Youth Olympic Games.
