USA Basketball Today

Based in Colorado Springs, Colorado, USA Basketball is a nonprofit organization and the national governing body for men's and women's basketball in the United States. As the recognized governing body for basketball in the United States by the International Basketball Federation (FIBA) and the United States Olympic Committee (USOC), USA Basketball is responsible for the selection, training and fielding of USA teams that compete in FIBA sponsored international competitions, as well as for some national competitions, and for the development of youth basketball initiatives that address player development, coach education and safety.

USA Basketball is an organization made up of organizations. There are five member categories.

Professional

- National Basketball Association
- National Basketball Association Development League
- Women's National Basketball Association

Collegiate

- National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics
- National Collegiate Athletic Association
- National Junior College Athletic Association

Scholastic

- National Federation of State High School Associations

Youth

- Amateur Athletic Union

Associate

- Athletes In Action
- Basketball Travelers
- College Commissioners Association
- Harlem Globetrotters
- Latin-American Basketball League of Los Angeles, CA
- National Association of Basketball Coaches
- National Basketball Players Association
- National Basketball Retired Players Association
- National Junior College Basketball Coach Association
- National Junior College Women's Coach Association
- National Wheelchair Basketball Association
- USA Deaf Sports Federation
- United States Armed Forces
- Women's Basketball Coaches Association.

USA Basketball was organized in 1974 and known as the Amateur Basketball Association of the United States of America (ABAUSA). The name change to USA Basketball occurred Oct. 12, 1989, shortly after FIBA modified its rules to allow professional basketball players to participate in international competitions. USA Basketball then admitted the NBA as an active member and made the change.

Right: Now a member of the 2013-16 USA Basketball Women's Developmental National Team Committee, Yolanda Griffith won two Olympic gold medals as a member of the 2000 and 2004 U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Teams.

An 11-member Board of Directors governs USA Basketball. Jerry Colangelo, 2005-2016 USA Men's National Team Managing Director, serves as Chairman of the USA Basketball Board of Directors for a second quadrennium. Other members of the Board are: NBA appointees Kim Bohuny, NBA Senior Vice President, Basketball Operations-International; Mark Tatum, NBA Deputy Commissioner/Chief Operating Officer; NCAA appointees Dan Gavitt, NCAA Vice President of Men's Basketball Championships; Mark Lewis, NCAA Executive Vice President of Championships and Alliances; Chris Plonsky, University of Texas Women's Athletics Director/Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director Athletics External Services; Scholastic Director Bob Gardner, Executive Director, National Federation of State High School Associations; National Organizations Representative Jim Carr, NAIA President and Chief Executive Director; at-large representative Jordan Schlachter, NBPA Chief Marketing Officer; and athlete representatives Chauncey Billups, 2010 World Championship gold medalist, and three-time Olympic gold medalist Katie Smith.

Serving since January 2001 as CEO/Executive Director is Jim Tooley, who has been with USA Basketball since 1993.

From 2013 through 2015, 1,626 men and women players and 185 coaches participated in USA Basketball, including USA Basketball men's and women's 5x5 and 3x3 teams, USA Basketball trials and USA team training camps.

USA Basketball men's and women's teams between 2012-15 compiled a spectacular 132-1 win-loss record in FIBA and FIBA Americas competitions. Adding in results from the World University Games and the Nike Hoop Summit, USA teams are a striking 151-6. Additionally, USA 3x3 teams posted a 92-15 win-loss record in official FIBA and FIBA Americas 3x3 competitions.

USA teams are the current men's and women's champions in the Olympics; men's FIBA World Cup and women's FIBA World Championship; men's and women's FIBA U19 and U17 World Championships; men's and women's U18 FIBA Americas Championships; men's U16 FIBA Americas Championship; and FIBA 3x3 Women's World Championship and women's Youth Olympic Games.

Additionally, USA Basketball ranks No. 1 in all five of FIBA's world ranking categories, including combined, men's, women's, boys and girls.

USA Basketball also sanctions U.S. basketball team tours of foreign countries and foreign basketball team tours of the U.S., as well as oversees the certification of FIBA and USA Basketball officials and the assignment of those officials to international competitions, and the licensing of players to play professionally overseas.

A brief synopsis of the various competitions in which USA Basketball teams participate includes:

Olympic Games

Men's and women's Olympic basketball competition is held every four years (2016, 2020, etc.). For a second-consecutive Olympics, the USA captured double gold at the 2012 London Olympics with both the men's and women's teams compiling unblemished 8-0 records. The USA men have captured the gold in 14 of the 17 Olympics in which they have competed and compiled an incredible 130-5 record. The USA women have earned the gold in five-consecutive Olympics and boast of a sterling 50-3 record. The 2016 Summer Olympic Games will be held Aug. 5-21 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

FIBA World Cup/World Championship

The FIBA Basketball World Cup, known from 1950 until 2010 as the FIBA World Championship for Men, and the FIBA World Championship for Women, are the flagship events of FIBA competitions. Held every four years, the USA again swept double gold in 2014. The next FIBA Basketball World Cup for men will be in China in 2019, while the FIBA World Championship for women will be held in 2018 in Spain.

Pan American Games

Started in 1951 for men and 1955 for women, the Pan American Games are held every four years (2019, 2023, etc.) in the year preceding the Olympics. Countries from FIBA Americas are eligible to compete. The USA men have an 90-17 overall record, winning eight of a possible 17 gold medals, while the USA women have won seven of 15 gold medals, including 2007, and own a 78-15 record. The 2019 Pan American Games are slated to be held in Lima, Peru.

World University Games

The World University Games are held for men and women every two years (2017, 2019, etc.), and only current university student-athletes or recent graduates are eligible. The USA men in 21 appearances have collected 13 gold, three silver and three bronze medals, while the U.S. women in 18 appearances have won 10 gold, six silver and one bronze medal. The 2017 World University Games will be held in Taipei, Taiwan.

U19 / U18 Championships

USA Basketball also fields men's and women's national teams for players 19 years old or younger. FIBA now holds U19 World Championships every two years (2017, 2019, etc.). In 2015 the USA women finished 7-0 to capture gold, the USA men likewise compiled a 7-0 record to earn gold. USA Basketball also fields teams featuring players 18 years old or younger for FIBA Americas U18 qualifying tournaments that will be held in 2016, 2018, etc.

U17 / U16 Championships

FIBA initiated in 2010 the U17 World Championships for players 17 years old or younger and now holds the event every two years (2016, 2018, etc.). In 2014 USA Basketball men's and women's teams both returned home with gold medals. USA Basketball also selects national teams featuring players 16 years old or younger for FIBA Americas U16 qualifying tournaments that will be held in 2017, 2019, etc.

Nike Hoop Summit

The Nike Hoop Summit is the country's premiere annual basketball game featuring America's top male high school seniors taking on a World Select Team comprised of top players 19 years old or younger from around the world. Played each April, the USA enjoys a 13-6 series lead. The 2017 Nike Hoop Summit will be played in April at the Moda Center in Portland, Oregon.

3x3 World Championships

FIBA initiated 3x3 competitions in 2010 and now conducts 3x3 World Championships every other year (2017, 2019, etc.), 3x3 U18 World Championships for men and women yearly (except in years when the Youth Olympic Games are held) and the Youth Olympic Games, featuring 3x3 competition, is held every four years (2018, 2022, etc.). The USA women are the defending gold medalists at the FIBA 3x3 World Championship and the Youth Olympic Games.

Trials Notes

About Trials

The 2016 USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team Trials will feature 30 players from May 28-30 at the United States Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Trials will be utilized to select the 12-member roster for the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team, and the team will be announced on the evening of May 30.

The USA will look to defend its 2014 U18 gold at the 2016 FIBA Americas U18 Championship July 13-17 in Valdivia, Chile.

Athletes eligible for this team must be U.S. citizens who are 18 years old or younger (born on or after Jan. 1, 1998).

The 2016 USA Basketball Women's U17 World Championship Team Trials will take place from May 26-30 at the USOTC, and all U17 athletes also are eligible for the 2016 USA Women's U18 National Team.

At The Helm

The 2016 USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team will be led by a trio of former USA Basketball players and current successful collegiate head coaches in Suzie McConnell-Serio (Pittsburgh) as the USA head coach and Kamie Ethridge (Northern Colorado) and Charlotte Smith (Elon) as assistant coaches.

Also on hand will be trials court coaches Tonya Cardoza (Temple University) and Kirsten Moore (Westmont College).

USA Basketball Experience

Trials will feature 14 players with prior USA Basketball experience, including 2015 FIBA U19 World Championship gold medalists Lauren Cox and Crystal Dangerfield. Cox also won gold as a member of the 2014 USA Women's U17 World Championship Team, and she and Dangerfield won gold as members of the 2013 USA Women's U16 National Team.

Sidney Cooks, Amber Ramirez and Megan Walker recently teamed up to win the 2016 USA Basketball 3x3 U18 National Tournament on May 1, which qualified them to represent USA Basketball at the 2016 FIBA 3x3 U18 World Championship, which will be played June 1-5 in Astana, Kazakhstan. Additionally, Oliana Squires played on the runner-up team at the 2016 USA Basketball 3x3 U18 National Tournament.

Six players will arrive at the 2016 U18 trials with two previous USA Basketball trials experiences.

Tori McCoy attended the 2014 U17 trials and was named to the 2013 USA Women's U16 National Team but could not participate due to injury; and players with experience at the 2013 U16 and 2014 U17 trials include: Nicole Ekhomu; Ramirez; Kylee Shook; Squires; and Dominique Toussaint.

Returning from the 2014 U17 trials are: Nadia Fingall, Ruthy Hebard, Megan Walker and Evina Westbrook; while Tyasha Harris was at the 2013 U16 trials.

Sixteen players will be taking part in their first USA Basketball junior national team event, including Jeannie Boehm, Chennedy Carter, Dana Evans, Vivian Gray, Anastasia Hayes, Valerie Higgins, Nia Hollie, Cierra Johnson, Kiara Lewis, Chasity Patterson, Reili Richardson, Jenna Staiti, Jasmine Walker, LaDazhia Williams, Aaliyah Wilson and Micaela Wilson.

By The Numbers

Twenty players will graduate high school in 2016, and 10 players are from the class of 2017.

The state of Texas leads the way in representation with five players at trials; Illinois features four players on the trials roster; Alabama, California, Colorado, Florida, Indiana and Tennessee each are represented by two players; and Alaska, Georgia, Louisiana, Minnesota, New York, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia and Wisconsin all feature one player on the trials roster.

At 5-foot-5, Patterson is listed as the shortest player, while at 6-foot-5, Staiti is the tallest.

2016 FIBA Americas U18 Championship

The 2016 FIBA Americas U18 Championship for Women will be played July 13-17 in Valdivia, Chile.

Not only is a gold medal at stake, the top four finishing teams will earn a qualifying berth in the 2017 FIBA U19 World Championship.

The USA was placed in preliminary round Group A with Brazil, Guatemala and Venezuela. Group B features Canada, host Chile, Mexico and Puerto Rico.

After playing each of the teams in its preliminary round group, the top two finishing teams from each group advance to the semifinals on July 16, while the bottom two teams in each group will play out for fifth-eighth places. On July 17, the semifinal winners will meet in the gold medal game, and the semifinal losers will play in the bronze medal game.

FIBA Americas U18 History

Originally known as the FIBA Americas Junior World Championship Qualifying Tournament, the event was held every four years from 1998-2004. FIBA changed its calendar after 2004, however, and the tournament is now conducted every other year, followed in the next summer by the FIBA U19 World Championship.

USA women's teams boast of a 48-2 overall record in U18/Junior Qualifiers and have won gold in 1988, 2000, 2004, 2006, 2008,

Coach Biographies

SUZIE McCONNELL-SERIO

USA Head Coach • University of Pittsburgh

Named as the head coach of the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team on March 8, 2016, University of Pittsburgh head coach Suzie McConnell-Serio will undertake her second USA Basketball coaching assignment after having helped the USA to a 6-0 record and gold medal as an assistant coach at the 2011 World University Games.

As a USA Basketball athlete, she earned four gold medals, including the 1988 Olympics, the 1986 FIBA World Championship, the 1991 World University Games and the 1985 R. William Jones Cup, and a bronze medal at the 1992 Olympics.

Additionally, she served on the USA Basketball Executive Committee from 2001-2004.

In nine seasons as a collegiate head coach overall, she owns a 167-118 record.

McConnell-Serio recently completed her third season at Pitt in 2015-16, leading her team to a 13-18 record.

After an 11-20 campaign in her first season with the Panthers, McConnell-Serio guided Pitt to a 20-12 overall record in 2014-15, including one win in NCAA Tournament, and she was named as a 2014-15 Naismith National Coach of the Year semifinalist.

Prior to Pitt, she spent six seasons at the helm of the Duquesne University women's basketball program (2007-08 to 2012-13), where she compiled a 123-68 overall record (.644 winning percentage) and reached five consecutive WNITs.

In her first season in 2007-08, Duquesne finished 15-15, a dramatic improvement for a team that had been 7-20 the year prior. She followed that up with the program's first 20-win season and a record for wins at the time with a 20-12 mark in 2008-09. Also in 2009, Duquesne reached the school's first postseason berth with a WNIT appearance and set then school records for points scored (2,208) and assists (487).

The Dukes again finished with a 20-12 record and WNIT appearance in 2009-10 and received votes in the AP national rankings for the first time since 2002. McConnell-Serio was named the 2010 Dapper Dan Sportswoman of the Year for a second time, the first recognition coming in 1999.

In 2010-11, she led her squad to a 24-9 mark, recorded the program's first WNIT victory. The 24 wins established a new high for the program, as did the team's 2,291 points, 835 made field goals, 1,312 rebounds, 517 assists, 362 steals and 155 blocked shots.

In 2011-12, she led her team to a 20-12 record, and in her final season in 2012-13, Duquesne tied a school record with 24 wins and had the best single-season winning percentage in program history at .750.

McConnell-Serio spent nearly four seasons (2003 through July 2006) as the head coach of the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx. In her first season, she led the Lynx to a then-record for wins with an 18-16 finish, including a trip to the franchise's first WNBA Playoffs. The Lynx again finished 18-16 in 2004, made another playoff appearance, and McConnell-Serio was tabbed the 2004 WNBA Coach of the Year.

She began her coaching career at Oakland Catholic High School in Pittsburgh, where she worked for 13 seasons (1990-91 through 2002-03) and won three Class 4A state titles (1993, 2001 and 2003) and four District 7 (WPIAL) championships.

She compiled a 321-86 overall record (.789 winning percentage) at Oakland Catholic and averaged more than 24 wins per season. Nearly a dozen of her former players went on to earn NCAA Division I scholarships.

As an athlete, she played four varsity seasons at Penn State University (1984-85 through 1987-88), where she was the first All-American selection in Penn State women's basketball history (Kodak and Street & Smith's in 1988). Four times she earned All-Atlantic 10 Conference first team, and she was awarded the 1988 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award. She compiled a 95-33 record and four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances as a Nittany Lion. She set NCAA Division I records for career assists (1,307), assists in a season (355 in 1986-87) and season assist average (11.8 in 1996-97). Her assist total and assists per game led the nation in 1985-86 and 1986-87.

Selected 16th overall in the 1998 WNBA Draft by the Cleveland Rockers, she played three seasons with Cleveland. She was named WNBA Newcomer of the Year and to the All-WNBA first team in 1998, and she earned the Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award in 1998 and 2000.

McConnell-Serio was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame with the Class of 2008 and the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 2001. She has been honored as a USA Today All-Time Women's Basketball Team selection, as one of Sports Illustrated's Top 50 Pennsylvania Athletes of the Century and as the best basketball player of all-time, male or female, 5'4" or shorter in the Oct. 29, 2007 issue of Sports Illustrated.

2016 USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team Trials

KAMIE ETHRIDGE

USA Assistant Coach • University of Northern Colorado

Named as an assistant coach for the USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team on March 8, 2016, University of Northern Colorado head coach Kamie Ethridge will undertake her second USA Basketball coaching assignment having previously served as a court coach for the 2015 USA Basketball Women's Junior National Trials.

"It is a tremendous honor to be selected as an assistant coach to USA Basketball's U18 Team," Ethridge said. "As a player, my proudest moments and achievements came while wearing the USA uniform and representing my country in USA Basketball competitions. I am extremely proud and appreciative to be a part of the USA Basketball U18 coaching staff and look forward to representing America in Chile."

"When you are a part of USA Basketball, you know you will be surrounded by excellence. Suzie McConnell-Serio and Charlotte Smith are amazing examples of excellence as people, leaders and coaches of our game. I am grateful for the chance to work with and learn from each of them. I am excited to be reunited with Suzie. Having played on a number of USA Basketball teams together, I know what a fierce competitor she is. Suzie's entire career she has demonstrated tremendous leadership by getting the very best from those around her. I have always admired her and I look forward to assisting her and working side by side with Charlotte Smith. One thing that stands out in the career of Charlotte Smith is her ability to shine brightest in the biggest moments. She is an inspirational coach and role model. I look forward to being around her energy and wisdom."

Currently in her second year at Northern Colorado, Ethridge is a former University of Texas star player, and she is a four-time USA Basketball medalist.

Ethridge won gold medals with USA Basketball at the 1988 Olympics, the 1987 Pan American Games, the 1986 FIBA World Championship and the 1986 Goodwill Games. She also won a silver medal at the 1985 World University Games, and she played for the gold medal winning South teams in the 1982 and 1983 U.S. Olympic Festivals.

Ethridge also served a four-year term on the USA Basketball Women's Junior National Team Committee, which selected college-aged teams, such as the World University Games, Pan American Games and R. William Jones Cup teams. In the summer of 1999, she was invited to lead a point guard camp in Colorado Springs, Colorado, for current, past and prospective USA Basketball talent.

Overall at Northern Colorado, Ethridge has compiled a 35-29 record in two seasons at the helm of the program.

In 2015-16, she guided UNC to a 13-16 mark.

In her first year at UNC in 2014-15, she led the Bears to a 22-13 record, which was a program high for wins, and the third round of the WNIT.

As a coach, Ethridge first was a student coach at Texas in 1987-88, before moving to Northern Illinois as a graduate assistant in 1989-90 and then as a NIU assistant coach in 1990-91.

She then went to Vanderbilt, where she was an assistant coach for five seasons (1991-92 through 1995-96). While there, she helped Vanderbilt to two Southeastern Conference Tournament titles and to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen in all five seasons, as well as the 1993 Final Four.

After that, she spent 18 seasons as an associate head coach at Kansas State University (1996-97 to 2013-14), helping the Wildcats to a 350-226 record over that span. She helped K-State to nine NCAA postseason tournaments and six Sweet Sixteens, four WNITs, including winning the 2006 WNIT Championship, and two Big 12 Championship titles.

In her four years (1981-82 through 1985-86) at Texas, Ethridge tallied a 131-37 career record in college. She was the Most Outstanding Player at the 1986 NCAA Final Four, which Texas won to finish the 1985-86 season with a 34-0 record to become the first undefeated NCAA Division I women's team in history. She played in the NCAA Sweet Sixteen in all four seasons and the Elite Eight twice. She was a two-time WBCA All-American (1985 and 1986) and was the 1986 Wade Trophy, Frances Pomeroy Naismith and Honda-Broderick Cup Award winner.

Originally from Lubbock, Texas, Ethridge went to high school at Monterey High School, where she was named Texas Player of the Year.

She was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2002 and the Texas Women's Athletics Hall of Honor and the Texas Women's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000.

CHARLOTTE SMITH

USA Assistant Coach • Elon University

Elon University head coach Charlotte Smith, who has played for and won gold medals with USA Basketball as an athlete, was named to her first USA Basketball coaching assignment on March 8, 2016, as an assistant coach for the 2016 USA Women's U18 National Team.

"It's an honor to be named assistant coach for the 2016 USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team," Smith said. "It's a tremendous honor to be able to give back and coach for USA Basketball after having played for several years on the collegiate level. It's a privilege to represent your country, and I definitely look forward to working with coach McConnell-Serio and coach Ethridge."

Smith won a gold medal at the 1996 R. William Jones Cup and silver medals at the 1995 World University Games and 1992 FIBA Americas U18 Championship (then known as the Junior World Championship Qualifying Tournament). She also won gold with the 1997 USA Women's International Invitational Team and at the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival and played for the 1994 USA Select Team.

Having completed her fifth season as the head coach at Elon University, she has compiled an 87-70 record, and in 2015-16 she led Elon to a 18-13 mark.

In its inaugural season in the Colonial Athletic Association in 2014-15, Smith led Elon to a 19-12 record, an 11-7 conference mark and the school's first WNIT appearance. The team tied for third during the regular season, earned the No. 4 seed in the CAA Championship and reached its third straight CAA semifinals.

In 2013-14, Elon went 10-8 in Southern Conference play during the 2013-14 season and advanced to the tournament semifinals for the second straight year.

In 2012-13, Elon posted a 19-14 record, including its best Southern Conference mark of 14-6. Elon earned a program-best three seed in the SoCon Tournament and advanced to the semifinals. Smith took the Phoenix to its second postseason appearance of the Division I era in the 2013 Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI) as the team advanced to the quarterfinals. During the season, Elon held a 13-game home winning streak, dating from Dec. 15, 2012 – March 23, 2013. Smith coached the Phoenix to a win over all 10-league teams, including conference champion Chattanooga, handing UTC its only conference loss of the season.

Smith led the Phoenix to a 16-14 mark in her first season (2011-12), the most victories by a first-year head coach in program history.

As an assistant coach at North Carolina for nine seasons, Smith helped the Tar Heels to a 257-54 record, including a 100-30 mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference. UNC won four ACC titles during Smith's tenure, making seven appearances in the top-25 national rankings. The Tar Heels made the NCAA Tournament in all nine seasons during Smith's tenure, making two trips to the Final Four as well as six Sweet Sixteen and four Elite Eight appearances. From 2005-2008, North Carolina earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

The most decorated player in North Carolina history, Smith was a four-year letterwinner for the Tar Heels from 1991-92 through 1994-95 and is one of only two UNC women's basketball players to have had her jersey retired. She was the National Player of the Year by ESPN in 1995 following a career in which she scored 2,094 points (fifth all-time at UNC) and grabbed 1,200 rebounds (second all-time at UNC).

Smith is perhaps best known for her performance in the 1994 NCAA Championship game, when her buzzer-beating 3-pointer gave UNC the national crown with a 60-59 win over Louisiana Tech. She also had a championship-record 23 rebounds in the game and was named the Final Four Most Outstanding Player.

The ACC Rookie of the Year in 1992, Smith earned All-ACC and ACC Tournament MVP honors in her junior and senior seasons as the Tar Heels claimed back-to-back conference crowns.

As a senior, she was named All-America by Kodak, the Associated Press and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association. In 2002, she was named to the ACC's 50th Anniversary team as one of the top players in conference history. She also was honored as the 10th-best female athlete in the history of the league.

Early in her senior season, she became just the second collegiate women's player to dunk in a game when she did so against North Carolina A & T on Dec. 4, 1994.

She earned her bachelor's degree in sociology in 1999.

Following her collegiate career, Smith played professional basketball in Italy, where she was MVP of the Italian All-Star Game for the 1995-96 season. She also spent the 1999-2000 season there.

The Colorado Xplosion picked Smith in the third round (17th overall) of the initial American Basketball League Draft in 1996. She spent two-and-a-half seasons in the league, playing for Colorado and the San Jose Lasers and earning ABL All-Star honors.

Smith was the 33rd pick in the 1999 WNBA Draft by Charlotte and played six seasons for the Sting before moving to Washington in 2005 and to Indiana in 2006.

A native of Shelby, North Carolina, she graduated from Shelby High School, where she earned all-state honors and was her team's MVP all four years.

In addition to playing professional basketball, she has interned in the Charlotte Sting offices and has worked for US Sports Management, Inc.

In May 2015, Smith was inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame.

TONYA CARDOZA

Trials Court Coach • Temple University

Named as a court coach for the 2016 USA Women's U18 National Team Trials on May 20, 2016, Temple University head coach Tonya Cardoza enters her first USA Basketball coaching assignment.

After eight seasons (2008-09-present) as the head coach of the Temple Owls, Cardoza has compiled a 164-101 (.618 winning percentage) record.

The Owls finished the 2015-16 season with a 23-12 record, including 13-5 in the American Athletic Conference and reaching the WNIT semifinals.

Cardoza has a 57-45 record in three years since Temple switched from the Atlantic 10 to the AAC.

The University of Virginia alumna was awarded the Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year in three consecutive seasons (2009, 2010 and 2011).

Cardoza also served as an assistant at the University of Connecticut from 1993-94. During her time at Connecticut, the Huskies went 465-41 (.919), with seven Final Four appearances and two unbeaten, national championship teams.

"I'm thrilled to have the honor of working with USA Basketball. I look forward to the experience of working with so many great players and coaches," Cardoza said. "It's always a privilege to represent your country in any facet and I'm extremely grateful for this opportunity."

KIRSTEN MOORE

Trials Court Coach • Westmont College

Named as a court coach for the 2016 USA Women's U18 National Team Trials on May 20, 2016, Westmont College head coach Kirsten Moore (Westmont) enters her first USA Basketball coaching assignment.

Moore joins USA Basketball after a 29-4 (.879) record for Westmont in 2015-16, including a 15-1 conference record and a trip to the NAIA Tournament.

In 2011-12, the Westmont Warriors won the most games in a season under Moore, (31), and in 2012-13, achieved a 30-win NAIA national championship season. On top of the national championship, Moore also was named the 2013 NAIA Coach of the year.

With a 249-99 (.859) overall mark at Westmont, Moore's teams only have missed out on NAIA postseason play once in her tenure.

Moore came to Westmont in the summer of 2005 from the University of California, Berkeley, where she served as an assistant women's basketball coach from 2001-02 to 2004-05.

"It is an absolute honor to be named a court coach for USA Basketball. To wear the letters U-S-A across my chest while representing our country is honestly something I dreamed of growing up," Moore said. "I am grateful and excited that I can play this small role in helping the growth and development of the young basketball talent in this great country prepare to represent us on a national stage."

2014 FIBA AMERICAS U18 CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WOMEN

Colorado Springs, Colorado

August 6-10, 2014

Guided by three-time Olympic gold medalist and USA head coach Dawn Staley, the USA's average margin of victory in 2014 was 44.8 points per game as it tallied a 5-0 record and captured the gold medal from Aug. 6-10 at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colorado. The gold was the USA U18 women's seventh-straight and eighth overall, and the U.S. women now are 48-2 in U18 play since the event was first held in 1988.

On Aug. 6, the USA debuted with a 104-55 win over Mexico that saw five players reach double digits as the team scored 84 points in the paint. Finishing with 16 points apiece were Jessica Shepard and Brianna Turner, who also grabbed seven rebounds. A'ja Wilson added 15 points and 10 rebounds; Napheesa Collier had 10 points and eight rebounds; and Destinee Walker scored 10.

The USA shot 68.4 percent and had eight players in double-digit scoring on Aug. 7 as it ran away with a 118-50 win against El Salvador, which was playing in its first FIBA Americas U18 Championship for Women. Sinking 4-of-4 from 3-point, Walker finished with 18; followed by 17 from Shepard; 16 points and eight rebounds from Wilson; 12 points and 12 rebounds from Collier; 12 points and four assists from Marina Mabrey; 11 points from Ariel Atkins; and 10 points from Beatrice Mompremier and Turner.

The USA rode a game-changing 19-4 second-quarter run to an eventual 107-76 win over previously unbeaten Canada on Aug. 8. The game saw six lead changes and five tied scores in the first half. Collier led with 22 points, 10 rebounds and four steals; and Turner, who finished with 21 points and eight rebounds, set USA U18 records for free throws made and attempted (9-of-11 FTs).

In the semifinals on Aug. 9, the USA jumped to an 11-0 lead against Argentina and did not slow down. Led by 23 points, nine rebounds and four blocks from Wilson, who shot 10-of-11 from the field, the USA recorded a 97-51 victory. Three players had 11 points, including Mabrey, Mompremier, who added eight rebounds, and Shepard, who tied the USA U18 record for free-throw attempts with 11.

With a commanding 104-74 win over Canada that saw the USA paced by 25 points and 11 rebounds from eventual tournament MVP Wilson, the USA captured the gold medal on Aug. 10. Collier contributed 18 points and six rebounds; Mompremier finished with 16 points and eight rebounds; Shepard added 14 points and seven rebounds; and Turner had 12 points. Additionally, Moore dished out seven assists, and Wilson with 11 attempted free throws tied the USA U18 single-game record – a mark that was set by Turner on Aug. 8 and matched by Shepard on Aug. 9.

In the bronze medal game, Argentina edged out Brazil 69-67.

The top four tournament finishers, including the USA, Canada, Argentina and Brazil, qualified for the 2015 FIBA U19 World Championship in Russia.

2012 FIBA AMERICAS U18 CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WOMEN

Gurabo, Puerto Rico

August 15-19, 2012

Despite starting the tournament with just 10 players and finishing with nine after a knee injury sidelined Jannah Tucker in the second game, the 2012 USA U18 National Team overcame adversity to claim the gold medal with a perfect 5-0 slate at the 2012 FIBA Americas U18 Championship. In claiming the USA's sixth-straight gold at the event, the U.S., guided by University of Miami head coach Katie Meier, qualified for the 2013 FIBA U19 World Championship.

Opening against Dominican Republic, the USA reeled off the second quarter's first 31 points and ran away with the 99-26 victory. All 10 players scored no less than five points apiece, including a game-best 23 points from Connecticut freshman-to-be Morgan Tuck, while incoming Notre Dame freshman Michaela Mabrey dished out a USA U18 single-game record 10 assists to go with her nine points and four blocked shots.

Behind game-bests of 17 points and 12 boards from Connecticut-bound Breanna Stewart, the USA downed Argentina 68-28 on Aug. 16. Tuck added 13 points and Mabrey scored 12.

In its final preliminary round contest, Baylor-bound Alexis Prince scored a game-high 19 points to lead the USA past Colombia 87-36 on Aug. 17. In addition to Prince, who shot 8-of-14 from the field, 3-of-6 from 3-point; Tuck shot 7-of-10 from the field and contributed 17 points; while Mabrey tied a U.S. U18 3-point field goal percentage record after netting 83.3 percent (5-6 3pt FGs) of her long-range attempts for 15 points.

Stewart and Tuck combined for 42 points and 11 rebounds to lead the U.S. to a 95-46 victory over Canada in the semifinal game on Aug. 18. Tuck shot 9-of-12 and led the way with 22 points, while Stewart shot 8-of-11 from the floor and finished with 20 points and a game-high eight rebounds.

Finding itself in unfamiliar territory, USA never panicked and fought back from a double-digit deficit to claim the 2012 FIBA Americas U18 Championship gold medal with a 71-47 victory over Brazil on Aug. 19. A trio of players posted double-doubles, including tournament MVP Stewart, who had 13 points and 10 boards and was the tournament's second leading scorer (14.0 ppg.) and third leading rebounder (7.8 rpg). Tuck, who topped the tournament charts and set a new USA U18 record for scoring average (17.8 ppg.) had a team-high 15 points and grabbed 11 rebounds; while Bashaara Graves had 10 points and 11 boards.

After trailing for just 1:44 combined in its first four games, and never by more than three points, the U.S. found itself in the position of having to come from behind by double digits as Brazil held an 18-7 lead 38 seconds into the second quarter. However, the USA turned up its defense, which helped fuel the offense and went ahead by a 29-24 margin at halftime. Upping its lead to 50-31 with the help of a 21-7 third quarter output, the U.S. cruised in for the eventual win and gold.

Argentina edged Canada 53-49 in the bronze medal game.

2010 FIBA AMERICAS U18 CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WOMEN

Colorado Springs, Colorado

June 23-27, 2010

The USA topped its five opponents by an average of 55.8 ppg. as it easily cruised to an undefeated, 5-0 record and the 2010 FIBA Americas U18 Championship gold medal June 23-27 at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Along with the USA, silver medalist Brazil, bronze medalist Canada and fourth-place finisher Chile all earned a berth into the 2011 FIBA U19 World Championship, and because Chile was automatically qualified as the host country, fifth-place Argentina also earned a spot in the 2011 tournament.

The U.S. attack was led by Chiney Ogumike, who averaged team-highs of 13.2 ppg. and 7.4 rpg., and Bria Hartley, who scored 10.6 ppg. and dished out 4.0 apg.

As a team, the USA shot a single-game best 88.2 percent (15-17 FTs) from the free throw line against Brazil on June 24. Additionally, Ogumike lists fifth in the USA U18 record book for points averaged, Hartley lists fifth for assists averaged and Theresa Plaisance blocked 1.8 shots per game to list fifth in that category as well.

Among all 2010 participants, Malina Howard led in field goal percentage (.625), followed by No. 2 Ogumike (.609).

Ranking No. 1 in 11 of 19 team statistical categories, the USA was a tournament-best 48.6 percent from the field while holding its opponents to just 22.1 percent shooting.

In its first contest on June 23, nine players scored at least six points to lead the USA to a 91-32 win over Argentina.

Ogumike tallied 15 points and 12 rebounds in 15 minutes, followed by Stefanie Dolson with 12 points on 5-of-6 shooting and Hartley and Kayla McBride with 10 points apiece.

The next evening, the USA launched a 13-2 run in the first three minutes before it sailed to a 89-46 win over Brazil.

Ogumike scored 15 points, Hartley added 14, Alexis Jones tallied 12 and McBride scored 10.

Against Puerto Rico on June 25, the USA received double-figure point production from eight players as the Americans rolled past Puerto Rico 108-44. Topped by Diamond DeShields' 14 points, also in double figures were: Reshanda Gray (12), Cassie Harberts (10), Hartley (10), Jones (10), Ally Malott (11), Ogumike (10) and Cassie Peoples (10).

Another quick start and strong finish put the USA within one win of its ultimate goal as eight U.S. players scored at least eight points on June 26 to propel the red, white and blue to a 98-28 win over Chile. Ogumike led with 17 points, McBride added 10 and Theresa Plaisance tallied 11.

The USA lived up to expectations with an 81-38 victory over Brazil on June 27 and finished with a 5-0 mark to claim the USA's fourth straight U18 gold medal. Howard led with 12 points, Hartley scored 11, as did Plaisance, DeShields scored 10, and Jones and Ogumike each had nine points.

2008 FIBA AMERICAS U18 CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WOMEN

Buenos Aires, Argentina

July 23-27, 2008

The 2008 USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team rolled over all five of its opponents at the 2008 FIBA Americas U18 Championship for Women in Buenos Aires, Argentina. Winning by an average of 49.6 ppg., the USA compiled a perfect 5-0 record on its way to the gold medal.

Along with the USA, Canada (silver), Brazil (bronze) and Argentina (No.4) all earned a berth into the 2009 FIBA U19 World Championship.

The U.S. attack was led by Nneka Ogumike with 12.6 ppg., Skylar Diggins with 10.8 ppg. and Kelsey Bone, who added 10.6 ppg. Ranking No. 1 in 14 of 19 team statistical categories, the USA was perhaps most impressive on the glass. Ogumike grabbed 8.0 rpg., Shekinna Stricklen collected 7.6 rpg. and Alyssia Brewer averaged 7.0 rpg. to help the USA rebound its competition by an average of 30.6 rebounds per game, including 21.8 offensive boards. Additionally, the 2008 squad collected a total of 280 rebounds to set a USA team competition record.

With participation from six teams, the championship was played in a round-robin format. In its first contest on July 23, the USA scored an astounding 78 points in the paint on the way to a 112-48 blowout of Venezuela. Led by 13 points apiece from post players Bone and Lynetta Kizer, every U.S. team member scored and six players finished in double figures.

The following evening, the USA outscored Canada 24-5 in the second period to secure an easy 72-56 win. The USA again displayed its depth with 11 of the 12 team members scoring. Stricklen led the way with 13 points and eight rebounds, and Bone added 12 points and nine boards.

Against Puerto Rico on July 25, the USA took its first lead 19 seconds into the game and never looked back as it raced to a 116-36 romp that featured six U.S. scorers in double digits. Ashley Corral tallied a game-high 16 points, and Kizer contributed 13 points.

The USA jumped to another early lead on July 26 and this time easily defeated Brazil 96-51. All 12 U.S. players scored, including nine with points in the first quarter. The win clinched a gold medal finish for the Americans, as only Canada, whom the USA had already beaten, could match the USA's win total. Diggins and Ogumike finished as the USA's high scorers with 13 points apiece.

Led by a double-double of 20 points and 15 rebounds from Ogumike, the USA concluded its run through the tournament unscathed with an 81-37 drubbing of host Argentina. In addition to Ogumike, whose 15 boards set a USA U18 single-game record, Bone tallied 12 points and nine rebounds; while Diggins contributed 11 points.

2006 FIBA AMERICAS U18 CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WOMEN

Colorado Springs, Colorado

June 28-July 2

Using a suffocating defense that held opponents to an average of 50.8 ppg., the 2006 USA Women's U18 National Team defended its gold medal at the FIBA Americas U18 Championship June 28-July 2 at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo. By finishing in the top four in the tournament, the USA qualified for the 2007 FIBA U19 World Championship, which will be held in Bratislava, Slovakia. The gold medal was the third consecutive and fourth overall for the U.S. at the FIBA Americas U18 Championship.

The Americans began the tournament with a 121-56 blowout of Paraguay on June 28. Victoria Baugh tied a USA U18 Championship record with 13 rebounds while also posting 14 points for the USA. Tina Charles led the team in scoring with 20 points and also brought down 10 rebounds.

In the second match-up on June 30, the U.S. took it to Brazil, winning 75-48 behind outstanding efforts from Khadijah Rushdan. Coming off the bench, Rushdan dished out nine assists against Brazil, which tied a USA U18 National Team record.

The U.S. squad then handled Argentina 81-47 on July 1 in the semifinals to advance to the gold medal game.

In the championship match-up, the USA proved early on that Canada was outmatched as the red, white and blue cruised to an 87-52 victory on July 2. Leading the way was Charles with 13 points and 13 rebounds, her second double-double of the tournament, and Italee Lucas, who notched 11 points and six assists.

The ball-hawking defense the USA employed forced its opponents to average just 25.9 percent from the floor throughout the tournament. The defense also was aided by a fast-breaking offense which outscored its opponents by an average of 40.3 ppg.

The U.S. paced the tournament by placing No. 1 or No. 2 in 17 statistical team categories in the seven-team field, and ranked No. 1 in 14 of those statistical categories, including scoring offense (91.0 ppg.); scoring defense (50.8 ppg. allowed); scoring margin (+ 40.2); field goal percentage (.421); free throw percentage (.674); rebounding offense (66.2 rpg.); rebounding defense (33.5 rpg. allowed); rebounding margin (+32.8); blocked shots (8.75 bpg.); assists (19.5 apg.); steals (17.0 spg.); turnover margin (+ 6.25); assist-to-turnover ratio (0.86); and offensive rebounds (30.25 rpg.).

2004 FIBA AMERICAS JR. WORLD CHAMP. QUALIFYING TOURNAMENT

Mayaguez, Puerto Rico

August 4-8, 2004

A star-studded roster of top 18-and-under players made up the USA Women's Junior World Championship Qualifying Team, and the American squad rolled over its opposition and claimed gold. The U.S. juniors finished with a sparkling 5-0 record and qualified the USA for FIBA's 2005 Junior World Championship in Tunisia.

As a group, the U.S. not only outscored its opponents by a whopping 81.0 ppg., but the USA averaged its eye-popping 123.0 ppg. on 62.7 percent shooting from the field, limiting opponents to just 42.0 ppg. and 24.8 percent shooting overall. The Americans also dominated the glass, outrebounding foes 53.8 rpg. to 19.0 rpg., and forcing the opposition into 50 more turnovers, 78-to-138.

Six of the USA's 12 players finished averaging in double figures in scoring. Candace Parker led the team averaging 16.6 ppg. and added a team second-best 8.8 rpg., while Courtney Paris scored 15.8 ppg. and added a team-best 9.0 rpg. Candice Wiggins averaged 15.2 ppg., Laura Harper added 12.8 ppg., Abby Waner tossed in 12.0 ppg. and 3.8 apg., while Chardé Houston finished averaging 10.4 ppg.

The USA opened preliminary round play at the FIBA

Americas Junior World Championship Tournament on Aug. 4 with a dominating 128-43 victory over Argentina as eight USA players finished the game in double figures led by Houston's 17 points on perfect 7-of-7 shooting. Just 22 hours later, the U.S. followed their first victory with an even more convincing win, recording a team-record 143 points in the 143-24 win over Bolivia. Waner tallied 26 points, and Paris added 22 points and 10 rebounds in the rout. Meeting host Puerto Rico on Aug. 6, Wiggins scored 16 and Paris accounted for 14 points and 13 boards as the U.S. steamrolled to a 124-49 win.

Facing Brazil in the Aug. 7 semifinals, the U.S. rolled to a 99-38 victory and moved on to the finals as Parker finished with 17 points and nine rebounds, while Harper chipped in 15.

In a rematch with Puerto Rico for the gold medal, the USA opened the game with a 23-6 run and again proved to be too much, storming to a 121-56 victory on Aug. 8. Parker scored 13 points in the first half and finished with 29 points, nine rebounds, three assists, three blocked shots and four steals. Wiggins aided the U.S. scoring effort with 23 points, Paris added 16 points and 13 rebounds for her third double-double of the tournament, Harper chipped in 11 and Waner added 10.

2000 COPABA JR. WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFYING TOURNAMENT

Mar Del Plata, Argentina

July 26-30, 2000

Winning five games in five days by an average margin of 50.6 ppg., the 2000 USA Basketball Women's Junior World Championship Qualifying Team stormed to the gold medal at the COPABA Women's Junior World Championship Qualifying Tournament in Mar Del Plata, Argentina. In winning the gold medal, the U.S. earned a berth in the FIBA 2001 Women's Junior World Championship. Also earning automatic berths were silver medalist Cuba and Brazil, which downed Argentina 69-39 to capture the bronze medal.

The U.S. overwhelmed its opposition offensively, defensively and on the boards. The USA averaged 92.2 ppg. while holding its opponents to a paltry 41.6 ppg. As a team, the North Americans shot 50.5 percent from the floor, 38.8 percent from 3-point and 74.3 percent from the line. Additionally, the U.S. cleaned the glass for 42.4 rpg. while limiting its opponents to 30.2 rpg.

Leading the way offensively for the U.S. was Alana Beard, who averaged a team-high 15.4 ppg. and also chipped in 4.4 rpg. and a team -leading 3.8 spg. Also scoring in double figures for the U.S. were Diana Taurasi with 12.6 ppg. and Laurie Koehn with 12.4 ppg. Taurasi also added to the U.S. cause with a team-leading 4.6 apg. and a team second-best 2.6 spg., while Koehn led the Americans in 3-point shooting, connecting for 2.8 (14-36 3pt FGs) threes per game. The U.S.

dominated on the boards behind the efforts of Nicole Powell, who pulled down a team-leading 6.5 rpg. and Ebony Hoffman, who hit the boards for 5.6 rpg.

The U.S. set the tone early in the tournament when it dismantled Mexico 100-28 in the first round of preliminary play on July 26. Ashley Robinson led five players in double-figure scoring with 15 points.

Paced by game highs of 23 points apiece from Beard and Aminata Yanni, the USA's second contest was another blowout, a 115-26 victory over Puerto Rico on July 27. Finishing off preliminary round play with a 98-51 victory over host Argentina, behind 24 points from Beard and 22 from Koehn, the red, white and blue easily advanced to the medal semifinals.

The USA continued to dominate its opponents in the semis as it handed Brazil a 79-57 loss to advance to the gold medal game and qualify for the 2001 FIBA Women's Junior World Championship. Taurasi recorded 26 points and nine rebounds, while Powell finished with the USA's only double-double of the tournament with 10 points and 12 rebounds.

In its fifth and final game of the qualifying tournament, Beard led the United States with 15 points as it manhandled previously unbeaten Cuba, 69-46, to capture the gold medal and complete its five-game sweep.

1996 COPABA JR. WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFYING TOURNAMENT

Chetumal, Mexico

August 27-September 1, 1996

The USA centered its hopes in 1996 around a strong 12-women roster that was selected after USA Junior National Team Trials were held at the U.S. Olympic Training Center. Among those earning a roster spot were four USA Today High School All-Americans, including the Naismith Player of the Year, Keisha Brown.

Led by experienced Penn State mentor Rene Portland, the USA squad finished 4-1, getting bumped by rival Brazil in the gold medal game. Still the U.S. earned the silver and qualified for the 1997 FIBA Junior World Championship, an event from which the U.S. would take home gold thanks to nine members of the '96 junior team who returned to play in 1997.

The USA got off to a great start on Aug. 27 recording a 94-68 win over Cuba. Featuring five players in double figures, the USA scoring was paced by 6-1 guard Semeka Randall's double-double of 17 points and 10 rebounds, while Nikki Teasley added 14 points and Lynn Pride contributed 13 more.

Costa Rica was unable to keep pace with the U.S., and the juniors ran to a 97-35 win. Randall headed seven USA players in double figure scoring with 15 points, while Juana Brown, Teasley and Tamika Catchings each accounted for 12 points, and Keisha Brown, Maylana Martin and Pride each scored 10 points.

With Randall leading the scoring charge for the third straight game, the Americans improved to 3-0 after upending host Mexico 79-47. Randall scored a team-high 14 points, Pride added 12, Jackie Stiles, Teasley and Carolyn Moos each were credited with 11 points.

Advancing to the semifinals and facing once-beaten Argentina, Martin recorded 13 points and grabbed nine rebounds to lead the U.S. to a decisive 81-66 win. Juana Brown was credited with 11 points, while Pride aided the USA effort scoring 10 points and snagging 11 rebounds, and Randall added 10 points.

Despite a 22-point, six-rebound effort from future Olympian Catchings, the USA junior squad was edged out by Brazil 82-78 in the gold medal contest. Although the U.S. led by as many as 12 in the first half, by halftime Brazil owned a narrow 46-44 advantage.

Brazil jetted ahead 69-52 with 11 minutes remaining, but the U.S. fought back to cut the gap to 77-75 with 1:19 to play. Neither team managed another field goal as the U.S. sank 3-of-4 free throws, and Brazil iced the contest by making 5-of-6 free throws. Juana Brown aided the USA scoring with 15 points, while Teasley and Randall finished with 13 and 11 respectively.

1992 COPABA JR. WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFYING TOURNAMENT

Guanajuato, Mexico

August 23-29, 1992

The USA's win streak in junior qualifying games reached 10 before Brazil handed the Americans their first loss and prevented them from claiming a second Junior World Championship Qualifying Tournament gold medal.

The American team was selected following four days of trials in Colorado Springs, Colo., and six members of head coach Nancy Wilson's junior squad boasted of prior international experience.

Opening Aug. 23 against Canada, the U.S. jumped out to a 32-27 halftime lead and went on to grab a 67-56 win as Sara Wilson and Dana Johnson paced the USA scoring with 12 and 10 points, respectively.

Earning win No.2 the following night with an 89-42 lopsided victory over Mexico, Shauna Tubbs headed the U.S. scoring in the win with 17 points and 10 rebounds, Charlotte Smith tossed in 11 points and Dana Johnson, Niesa Johnson, and Tiffany Woosley each contributed 10 points.

Closing out round-robin play against Puerto Rico, the Americans continued to roll, exploding for a 106-54 win. Future Olympian Rebecca Lobo led the U.S. charge with a solid showing of 14 points, six rebounds and five blocked shots, Tubbs added 13 points and Dana Johnson and Wilson each dropped in 12.

Squared off against Cuba in the semifinals, the USA got off to a great start and sprinted to a 49-31 halftime lead. Cuba roared back in the second half and outscored the U.S. 56-52, but still it wasn't enough as the Americans held on to earn a 91-87 win. Woosley headed the victorious USA attack with 23 points (9-14 FGs, 3-7 3pt FGs), Angela Aycock added 17 points and Tubbs and Dana Johnson were the other U.S. players in double figures with 11 points each.

The 1992 gold medal game was a rematch of the 1988 gold medal clash, however, unlike 1988 when the U.S. posted the win, Brazil came out on top 80-70. The USA enjoyed a two-point, 40-38, advantage at half, but it didn't hold up as Brazil outscored the U.S. 42-30 in the second stanza. Aycock led the U.S. with 18 points, Woosley added 12 points and Niesa Johnson capped the tournament adding 11 points.

1988 COPABA JR. WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFYING TOURNAMENT

Sao Paulo, Brazil

August 1-7, 1988

Winning six games in seven days by an average margin of 14.2 ppg., the 1988 USA Basketball Women's Junior World Championship Qualifying Team took home top honors, the gold medal, and qualified the USA junior women for the 1989 FIBA Junior World Championship with a solid showing August 1-7 in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Head coach Debbie Ryan directed the junior Americans to the gold as her team captured four wins by six or fewer points.

The USA won its first two games against over-matched Guatemala and Argentina. Opening Tournament play on Aug. 1 facing Guatemala, the USA, behind 19 points from Stacey Ford and 13 points from Patrina Scruggs and Trisha Stevens, rolled to a dominating 106-53 victory. Only leading Argentina 36-30 at halftime the following day, the USA went on to post a 73-58 win as Vicki Hall led the team with 14 points, while Ford and Stevens each accounted for 12 points.

The U.S. closed out round robin play by earning its third straight win after defeating Cuba 64-60 on Aug. 4. Relying on a balanced offensive effort that saw 10 USA players score, Stevens contributed 12 points, Ford added 10 and Hall finished with nine points

Facing Cuba again just two days after edging them by four points, the USA again squeezed out a victory, earning a 76-70 decision this time. Wrapping up semifinals play facing Canada, the USA squad again showed great determination and captured another hard-fought victory, winning 74-69.

Matched against host and undefeated Brazil in the Aug. 7 gold medal game, the USA pulled out a 70-68 victory to disappoint the vocal home crowd. Sonja Henning iced the game for the U.S. by sinking a pair of free throws with seven seconds left in the game. Kari Parriott led the U.S. scoring with 11 points, and added nine rebounds, while Ford tossed in 10 points and Dana Wilkerson finished with eight points.
